SENT TO STATE FARM

Thomas Carroll, who was released from the state farm at Bridgewater yesterday morning, was arrested shortly after midnight last night and this afternoon was taken back to Bridgewater.

Carroll after arriving in Lowell yesterday started to celebrate his release and as a result he got intoxicated and while in that condition opened a window in Coleman's boarding-house in Webster street and entered the house. Mr. Coleman heard the racket and arising found Carroll in the room. He grabbed the intruder and sent for a police officer. Patrolman Sheridan

COL. ROOSEVELT

The Report That He Was Killed is Not Credited

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—A rumor that ex-President Roosevelt had been killed on his hunting trip in Africa was about in Washington this morning, but diligent search failed to reveal the slightest foundation for it. Inquiries from many parts of the country make it evident that the rumor is widespread. At the Smithsonian institution not the slightest word of such a fatality or even of an accident had been received. The state department which would be most likely to be notified by its consular officers in Africa had received no such news.

Confidential information from a source whose reliability cannot be questioned was obtained here early this afternoon making it apparently absolutely certain that no tidings of any mishap to Mr. Roosevelt have reached this country by any of the ocean cables. This seems to establish the fact that the rumor is without foundation.

Unless the plans of the party have changed Col. Roosevelt should be now on the Guas Ingishu plateau. He left London with several companions on Oct. 25, arriving at Aldama ravine on the following day. The last word from his immediate party was from Aldama ravine and was received in this country by way of Nairobi on October 27. At that time the party was preparing to proceed immediately for Guas Ingishu plateau. It was planned to return to London in five weeks. The Guas Ingishu plateau is a vast open plain in the north of Kisumu province. It is covered with grass and fringed on all sides with trees. It affords some of the best grazing lands in the British protectorate and is a hunting ground. The visit to which had been eagerly anticipated by Col. Roosevelt.

The direct route had not been determined so far as is known when the party left Aldama ravine but working westward by the most likely path the path would in a very few days be at Nandi Boma which is a British military station. News of their arrival at this point might be possible through native runners in the employ of the British military authorities. In this way news might be available but nothing has been received so far as known through these channels.

CITY SOLICITOR

Says Messrs. Harris and Mac-Brayne Must be Paid

According to City Solicitor Duncan former Police Commissioners Simon B. Harris and Winfred C. MacBrayne must be paid by the city for the time they served as commissioners. Ald. Tyler A. Stevens, chairman of the committee on accounts, requested an opinion of the city solicitor relative to this matter and the city solicitor answers as follows:

Lowell, Mass., Nov. 4, 1909.

Alderman Tyler A. Stevens,
Chairman Committee on Accounts,
Lowell.

Dear Sir:—I have your request for an opinion as to whether former Police Commissioners Simon B. Harris and since Mr. Harris and Mr. MacBrayne were de jure as well as de facto officers and the mayor's order removing the old board was effectual and was not rescinded from the beginning because of its revocation by the superior court, they are entitled to pay for their services from the date when they qualified and assumed office to the date of their resignation.

Very truly yours,
Wm. W. Duncan,
City Solicitor.

CITY SOLICITOR DUNCAN

Winfred C. MacBrayne are entitled to be paid by the city for the time during which they served as commissioners.

This question appears to be fully settled by the decision of the supreme court in the case of Taber vs New Bedford, 177 Mass. 199. In that case the court, referring to the status of the new license commissioners of New Bedford, appointed after the removal of the old commission by the mayor, pending the decision of the superior court on review, says that "Until the order removing the old board was revoked it was effectual. After the removal of the old board, the mayor had the right to appoint a new board at once. The new board, when appointed was a licensing board, not only de facto, but de jure. When the order of removal was 'revoked' it was not rescinded from the beginning and made as if it had never been. That is not the meaning of 'revoked,' which imports that the order is in force until it is recalled."

I am therefore of the opinion that

JAIL SENTENCE

For Veteran of the Civil War

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 5.—A jail sentence of but one year's duration was given John McKenna, an aged veteran of the Civil war, who on May 8 killed his comrade, Albert Morris, at the soldiers' home in Bristol. Sentence was pronounced in the superior court this afternoon by Justice Christopher Lee and is one of the most unusual in the history of the Rhode Island judiciary. McKenna and Morris, both old Grand Army men, were passing the few remaining years of their life at the home when one day they quarreled over the war. The case finally reached the superior court today with a charge of manslaughter against McKenna.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 5.—Miss Gertrude Jordan, 28 years old, was elected treasurer of Cherry county last night. Until lately she had been a deputy in the office. She is a republican. The county attorney questioned whether a woman was eligible and to settle the dispute the matter was referred to Attorney General Thompson who yesterday declared there was nothing in the constitution to prevent Miss Jordan assuming office.

WRIGHT MACHINE

Met With Accident While Making a Flight Today

COLLEGE PARK, Md., Nov. 4.—The Wright aeroplane met with an accident this morning which will probably result in putting it out of commission for a day or two. Lieut. Lahm and Humphreys, making a flight shortly after 8 o'clock, while endeavoring to turn the biplane when only a few feet above the ground, found their engine working slowly and without sufficient force to swing the machine about. In consequence the left plane touched the ground causing the machine to lurch, breaking the right plane as well as the right skid that held the forward steering planes in place. The linen covering of the lower right hand plane was quite badly torn. Lieut. Lahm was controlling the machine at the time of the accident. Neither he nor Lieut. Humphreys received even a shock when the machine came down.

The accident occurred after the machine had been in the air about five minutes and had circled the aviation field several times. There was very little damage done. An examination will be made of the injured parts. The engine was wholly uninjured. Why it should have run slowly at the critical moment when a turn was being made could not be explained. The government's machinists immediately went to work to repair the machine. This is expected to occupy several days. Today's accident was the first serious one that has occurred since the army lieutenants have been practicing with the machine. It is the only one occurring during the absence of Mr. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregoire and Mr. Frank Montgomery have just returned from a business trip to New York.

The journey will consume about two weeks and the itinerary includes stops at a number of important cities of the middle west. After the Chicago speeches, addresses will be made by Mr. Aldrich as follows:

Leaving Detroit after the address on the night of the 16th Mr. Aldrich will return to New York on Wednesday, the 17th, and there on the next evening he will speak before the chamber of commerce. The senator has found it necessary to decline invitations from political organizations. Several have been received including one from the Hamilton club of Chicago.

WORLD'S RECORD

North Dakota is the Fastest of All Dreadnaughts

ROCKLAND, Me., Nov. 5.—The world's speed records for first-class battleships were broken yesterday, when the North Dakota raced over the measured mile off Rockland at the rate of 22.25 knots an hour, exceeding the stunt set by Uncle Sam by 1 1/2 knots and bettering the record of the sister ship Delaware, which at no time attained a speed of 22 knots. It was also a great victory for the turbine engines over the Delaware's reciprocating engines, as well as a triumph for the Curtis type.

The record of 22.25 knots was achieved while the ship was running with the current and makes no allowance for tidal corrections. The average of the five top-speed runs, both with and against the tide and after corrections had been made by the board of inspection and survey, was 21.333.

The Delaware's average for five high speed runs under similar conditions was only 21.44. More wonderful than all else was the tremendous amount of horse power developed, the maximum being in excess of 35,000, and the average for the five high-speed runs being 32,375.

The maximum horse power developed by the Delaware on standardization was about 30,000. The maximum number of revolutions made by the North Dakota today was 266 per minute. It was estimated that contract speed of 21 knots would be made with the propellers turning at 260, and it will be on this basis that the mighty ship will start away bright and early tomorrow morning.

After two days of postponement on account of thick weather the builders found conditions letter-perfect this morning. Two warning up runs were made, and at 3.15 she crossed the line on what was destined to be the fastest mile ever made by a ship of this type. When the cards presented figures that represented a mile at 22.25 knots an hour there was a moment of rejoicing and congratulations and then the trial was resumed.

The next mile was against the tide and was at the rate of 21.486. The remainder of the top-speed runs were made in the following order: 22.13, 21.126 and 22.138. After that, to obtain standardization data, there were three runs each at 20 1/2 knots, 19 knots, 17 1/2 knots, 12 knots and 10 knots.

Automatic Sprinklers Proved Their Value

By having automatic sprinklers and alarms in its plant the United States Hobbs and Shuttle company, at the corner of Rogers and Perry streets, was saved from a serious fire this morning.

Fire broke out from some unknown cause on the top floor of the three story brick building occupied by the company, about 1.30 o'clock. The ringing of the automatic alarm attracted the attention of Officer Wesley Wilson, who rang in an alarm from box 135. By the time the regular alarm had been sent in the High Street Engine company had arrived on the scene. When the firemen entered the building they found the sprinklers working beautifully and the fire extinguished. All that remained for the firemen to do was to clean up the place. The damage was slight and principally by water. The alarm rang out at 2 o'clock.

The building and contents were insured by Fred C. Church.

CAPETOWN, Nov. 5.—A quantity of charred wreckage, including bits of the deckhouse, have been washed ashore near Port Alfred on the south-east coast of Cape Colony. There are some indications that the wreckage is from the British steamer Waratah which with five hundred passengers and a cargo of metal and wool has never been heard from since she sailed from Port Natal on July 26 for London.

In the testimony of the young woman's mistress, Mrs. Von Jaggerman, who testified that "the night the young woman disappeared she saw her on the street near the house talking with two men, both of them short and thick set. Both the defendants answer such a description. Another witness today was Daniel Murphy who discovered the body and who said that he noticed many footprints in the vicinity and that in addition to those of the woman's boots there were others, showing that two men were with her. When the clothing found on the body was displayed in court Delorey appeared nervous but his companion remained very cool.

It was pointed out that never before in the history of the church founded by Mrs. Eddy had a church body of the denomination attempted to review action taken by the mother church in Boston and the partisans of Virgil O. Strickeler. Mrs. Stetson's successor as first reader of the church here declared today that some drastic action in regard to the Stetson case might be looked for from the Boston stronghold.

ATTORNEY PRATT

Asks for Release of Two
Chinamen

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—In his plea for the release and pardon of Wary Charles and Joe Guey, the two remaining Chinamen to be electrocuted for the murder in the tong war of two years ago, Attorney Harvey Pratt asked the pardon committee of the governor's council today to review the evidence in the trial and set aside the verdict because of Charles' public services and because neither of the defendants had any knowledge of the murders.
Mr. Pratt admitted that he had very little evidence to support the claim of ignorance of Charles and Guey regarding the shooting. He laid much stress upon the work of Charles as a court interpreter and as an assistant to the government in the apprehension of Chinese smugglers. It was this labor which brought down upon him the animosity of the members of the opposing tong.

The Influence of Good Company

The influence of association with Stein-Bloch Clothes is shown in the character of the FIFTEEN DOLLAR SUITS and OVERCOATS at the SMART CLOTHES SHOP.

With ideals keyed up to the Stein-Bloch standard, the SMART CLOTHES SHOP looks for and provides a higher standard of tailoring in THEIR FIFTEEN DOLLAR garments than other stores.

True, we're satisfied with and can get by with a smaller margin of profit than other stores, because of our very modest expense account. We have created a new standard in clothes at this price.

All wool and all worsted fabrics at $15 isn't unusual or remarkable—but all wool and all worsted fabrics with our quality of tailoring are not shown around here.

Just try to find them.

Suits of black and blue unfinished worsted, blue serges and fancy serges, fancy worsteds, chevrons and the new cassimers, in several models for men and young fellows, allow good choosing for the fifteen dollar man.

Overcoats of regulation length in black and blue kersey, oxford melton and fancy chevrons—also long coats with the convertible collar, in choice styles, comprise the range shown here at $15.00.

Every garment is hand tailored and every garment is fresh and new—that's worth remembering.

Sizes up to 48.

Look for the sign of good clothes if you want the most for your money.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 5.—While C. L. Warriner, the deposed treasurer of the Big Four R. R. The alleged shortage, it was reported today has grown until it is now placed at from $150,000 to $175,000. It is also stated that at least three persons are being sought in connection with the blackmaling of the former treasurer, he having mailed them as among those who levied tribute upon him and whom he paid from the company's funds.

J. E. Willett Proved That Var-ne-sis Cured Rheumatism

J. E. WILLETT, 37 W. Fifth Street, Lowell
Mr. J. E. Willett's Testimony

After 20 years of rheumatic pain and suffering, Mr. Willett, a well known Lowell blacksmith and member of the Foresters, found permanent cure. Nearly a year ago he made the following declaration and today repeats every word:
"After 20 years I suffered with rheumatism in my shoulders and hands. It gradually worked down, until it settled in my knees and feet. I was obliged to walk flat-footed, not being able to bend my knees in the least.
When I first got up in the morning it was almost impossible to get about. Some mornings I had to actually crawl about until I got limbered up, my joints were so sore and stiff. In order to dress I had to hold on to the side of the bed, as I could not bear my weight on my feet. In going down stairs I had to hold on to the banisters, and walk down one step at a time. I tried every kind of rheumatic cure I heard of but they did not cure me and I finally gave up hope of ever getting rid of rheumatism in my feet and knees.
John Buchanan, an old friend of mine, recommended Var-ne-sis Blood Purifier to me, and told me what it had done for him. I am mighty glad I listened to him and tried it for it has absolutely cured me. My knees and feet are as limber as can be and I know what it is to walk with comfort again. I am out in all kinds of weather, but have never had a return of rheumatism since being cured."
I am sincerely yours,
J. E. WILLETT,
37 West Fifth St., Lowell, Mass.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

The class poet of Brown university's senior class comes from Jamaica, in the West Indies.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Dr. Wilfred Thomson Grenfell to Miss Anne Elizabeth MacClannahan of Chicago, at Grace Episcopal church, Chicago, on Nov. 18 at 8 p. m.

The fund which the Scottish people of Boston have been raising to erect a statue of Robert Burns has been increased by a donation of $100 from Harry Lauder, the Scotch comedian. Hugh Cairns, the sculptor, was commissioned by Lauder to make him a bronze replica of the statue, which is the best one of Burns that he has seen. He wishes to place it in his home in Scotland.

Mrs. A. D. Winship of Racine, Wis., although nearing her seventy-ninth birthday, has entered Ohio State university for the regular collegiate course. For the last two years she attended summer school at the university, taking special studies. She will study psychology and literature, especially. She says that she has planned a course of study that will keep her occupied until she reaches her ninetieth birthday.

A bureau of graduate appointments has recently been formed at Brown university by President Baunce, consisting of Professors J. Q. Dealey, J. A. Brooks, William Kirk and F. P. Gorham. For years a teachers' bureau has existed at Brown, and in recent years much has been done by the engineering professors to secure positions for graduates in the courses in engineering. The object of the new bureau is to assist all alumni throughout the country in their careers. Professor William Kirk is secretary of the bureau.

A mark of distinction recently has been bestowed upon Dr. Marshall L. Perrin of Wellesley, in his election to membership in the Author's club, one of London's most eminent literary and academic societies. The late George Meredith was president of this club, and his successor is the poet laureate of England. Among present members are Maarten Marlen, Anthony Hope, Lord Tennyson, Poulton Bigelow, Hall Caine, Conan Doyle, Sir Algernon Ross and Professor Skeat. The election of Dr. Perrin is due to his work along the lines of Anglo-Saxon and early English, as well as to his international reputation in educational and literary circles.

All Paris is deeply interested in the marriage of Claude Casimir-Perier, son of the late president of France, M. Casimir-Perier, to Mme. Simone Benda, one of the leading actresses of the French stage. She formerly was the wife of M. Le Barry, the comedian and conservative teacher of acting, who discovered the talent of his wife and developed it fully. She is of an excellent family, the members of which, with their friends, were shocked at her adoption of the stage. Two years ago the late President Casimir-Perier attempted to break off his son's interest in Mme. Benda, and more recently the young man's mother, Mme. Casimir-Perier, appealed unsuccessfully to the courts to prevent his marriage, which was consummated only after several legal disputes.

Miss Lucy F. Elder has been appointed trained nurse of the school for consumptive children which has just been opened on the ferryboat Siquahanna at the foot of Columbia street, Brooklyn. The school is run by the co-operation of various agencies, Miss Mary Harriman, eldest daughter of the late E. H. Harriman, procured the loan of the boat to the board of education, the committee on the prevention of tuberculosis provides a visiting nurse—Miss Austin—to look up the patient-pupils when they fail to come to school, the board of health sends a couple of doctors to visit the school three times each week, the board of education supplies the teacher, the trained nurse in charge and the school furnishings while the Red Cross expects to be able to sell enough stamps to supply the milk and eggs for the diet of the pupils.

DETROIT WOMAN

Shares an Estate in Walpole, N. H.

DETROIT, Nov. 5.—Through the efforts of City Clerk Nichols, Mrs. H. T. Kenrick of 912 4th avenue has been placed in communication with the administrators of the Kenrick estate in Walpole, N. H., with the result that her proper share in the property will be conveyed to her. It is one of those cases where a lost heir must be found before an estate can be settled up.

Wednesday a letter was received by the city clerk from C. T. Kenrick, who died in Detroit in 1894. The letter stated that the Kenrick estate was being divided and a share was due Mrs. Kenrick.

City Clerk Nichols and Deputy William Dever could find no Mrs. H. T. Kenrick in the directory. As a last resort William Dever went to the directory publishers and from a directory of 1894 learned that H. T. Kenrick lived at that time at 912 Fourth avenue.

Deputy Dever then learned that Mrs. Kenrick, aged 72, still lived there, with her daughter, also a widow. It was late when Dever arrived and the house was dark. He went next door, told a neighbor his errand and returned with her to ring the bell until Mrs. McKinney, the daughter, came to the door. The news was a complete surprise.

"My husband had many relatives in New England," said Mrs. Kenrick. "But since his death, 15 years ago, I have heard almost nothing from them. What amount I will get I do not know."

MURDER CHARGED

Two Men Are Under Arrest at Houlton, Me.

HOULTON, Me., Nov. 5.—Charles R. Friel and Ellis Black were arraigned yesterday afternoon, the warrant charging Friel with murder and Black with being an accessory in the killing of John Friel of Amity, who died Wednesday evening as a result of a wound received from a bullet fired from a rifle, as the state claims, in the hands of Charles Friel. Both prisoners pleaded not guilty.

Charles Friel, uncle of the respondent, testified to seeing Charles and John in a fight in the McIntosh house nearby on the evening in question, swearing at each other, and the witness helped to separate them. He then went home with his brother John and after they had talked awhile they heard a noise and recognized the voices of the respondents crying to John, "Come out, we are ready for you."

They went out, three shots were fired and his brother fell. The men drove away and witness helped his brother into the house. Lester Knapp, who lives on the same road, testified to being awakened during the night by a team driving in his yard. On going to the window, Charles asked him for his rifle, saying he wanted to kill John. Witness refused and respondents drove away. John McCluskey, who lives on the same road, testified to hearing

BUY YOUR OVERCOAT NOW

We Are Doing the Largest Overcoat Business in Our History and We Advise an Early Purchase to Get the Choicest Shades

The great strength of this stock of overcoats is in the extensive variety and exceptional value of the garments at the middle prices, beginning at $15 and going up to $30. The man who is looking for service chiefly will find it in these garments at $15, $20 and $25, garments that are unmatched at these prices.

If style is the desired overcoat quality, we can show more models of high grade fancy coats—from the 46-inch box to the 52-inch auto model—than can be found in any two other stores in town.

Every garment we show at these prices is hand-tailored, can be depended on to be correct in style and dependable in workmanship, and is an exclusive style with us.

For Friday and Saturday we name two special values that are trade winners:

SILK LINED OVERCOATS $25.00

For the man who appreciates a touch of style to a plain staple overcoat, this silk lined garment with facing to the button holes is an appealing style.

The material is a black vicuna, from one of our finest makers, a half box model that fits the neck closely and drapes perfectly. It is entirely hand built, except where machine work is preferable. You get in love with it the minute you put it on and look in the glass; it's a dressy, stylish, high class coat and easily worth $5 more than we ask for it. All sizes this week.

UNMATCHABLE OVERCOATS $15.00

Sold everywhere at $20.00.

You'll probably never see the equal of these coats again, here or elsewhere, at this season's price.

These coats are made of black and blue kerseys of great strength and lustrous finish. For a moderate price, kersey fabrics give more service than any other overcoating. Kersey is woven tightly together, with a smooth finish that shows wear very little.

The cut of these coats is in a sensible style, half box, avoiding extremes, and is a fashion that is always in good form. They have well shaped shoulders, snug fitting collars and hang splendidly.

The interior finish is as honest as the outside, wool sergo lining, all seams sewed with silk thread, buttons on to stay; and the inside stiffening and stays are as carefully worked as the parts of the garments that meet the eye.

Sizes to fit young men and men of all shapes—regulars, shorts, longs, and stouts—from 33 to 46 inch breast, in black and blue.

ANNUAL REUNION

Of St. Patrick's Academy
Alumni, Dec. 29

The committee in charge of the coming banquet and reunion of the Alumni of St. Patrick's Boys' academy, met last evening in the school hall and organized by choosing Joseph A. O'Brien, 1900, chairman and Charles G. Griffin, '03, secretary. Practically every class since the founding of the school in 1882 is represented on this committee and from the interest and enthusiasm shown at the first meeting, there is little doubt that it will be conducted on a larger and better scale than last year's successful affair. The following members were nominated as chairmen of the different sub-committees: Music—John J. Hanlon, '93; printing—Thomas J. Mulligan, '83; speakers—Jos. A. O'Brien, '00; catering—David Hanlon, '05; decorating—John F. Golden, '94; finance—Michael W. Adams, '99, and each will have a definite report for the next meeting to be held Thursday, Nov. 18, in the school hall. An invitation is extended to every former student, whether a graduate or not, to attend this reunion on Wednesday evening, Dec. 28, and the committee suggests an early application for tickets.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

It is seldom that widely divergent critics ever agree, yet we find that William Winter, the dean of the New York reviewers, was in perfect accord with Arthur Brisbane, the most conspicuous of the younger school of extremists, when Henry Bernstein's masterpiece, "The Thief," which is due by special arrangement with Charles Frohman, at the Opera House tonight and Saturday matinee and night was first presented in that city. Both were the loudest applauders of the dramatic excellence and moral significance of the great play. It was these two qualities of "The Thief" which won the pair of distinguished critics and made the play the premiere dramatic offering of many seasons in New York. When a play can arouse the enthusiastic support of two such diametrically opposed judges as Winter and Brisbane, the piece must truly possess genuine elements of artistic and popular success.

"THE SERVANT IN THE HOUSE." One of the most striking stage figures seen in recent years is Charles Dalton's forcefully realistic Dr. Man in "The Servant in the House," which is to be presented at the Opera House next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday by Henry Miller's Associated Players. Mr. Dalton, who will be remembered as "Marcus Superbus" in

in "The Servant in the House."

"The Sign of the Cross" and as the husband in "The Thief," has, season makes of the Dr. Man, a vivid, virile, almost Titanic figure. His impersonation because of its quality of glowing realism alone will live long in the memories of all who see him. In this part, Seats for all performances are now on sale.

WILLIAM COLLIER COMING. Charles Frohman will present William Collier, the foremost comedian of the day, at the Opera House on Thursday, Nov. 11, in his great comedy success, "The Patriot." This play was written by Mr. Collier in collaboration with J. Hartley Manners, the English dramatist. "The Patriot" is filled to the brim with laughter, but it also tells a most interesting story and has plenty of heart interest. The scenes of the play are laid in Bull Frog, Nevada, and London. Mr. Collier is seen as an Americanized English baronet. Mr. Frohman has surrounded Mr. Collier with the largest and most capable company the popular comedian has ever had.

"THIS WOMAN AND THIS MAN." Miss Minnie Vernon has recently signed contracts to appear during the coming season in "This Woman and This Man," a new play from the pen of Avery Hopwood, the clever young author of "Clothes" and other successful pieces. "This Woman and This Man" is a highly emotional drama, with a plentiful harvest of delightful comedy. The play comes to the Opera House Friday, Nov. 12.

"THE CANDY SHOP." "Meet Me Down on the Corner," an ensemble song in "The Candy Shop," is said to win cheers until the players are forced to retire to the dressing room. William Rock and Stuart Fulton who introduced this number appear as a smart city youth and his "steady." The girls and youths of the chorus of the company are a picturesque background for this feature. This new sensational play will be seen here soon.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

If you want a good brisk, snappy show throughout, go to Hathaway's theatre, this week. There's nothing approaching dulness on the bill, and of variety there's a profusion. George Ade's clever comedy, "The Mayor and the Manicure" is headlined. It is a semi-political play, with a good slice of fun to it. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Remondo in the emotional sketch "The Soldier of Propriety" get under the skin a bit. Smokey Burns and Alice Fulton in a finished dancing act; McIntyre and Groves, right up-to-the-minute conversationists; Josephine Joy, with a sweet voice and a pretty face; the Alpha troupe of premier hoop rollers; and Luce & Luce, novelty musicians. The moving pictures are all new. Performances will be given every afternoon and evening during the remainder of the week, with special seats at the matinees for the women.

THEATRE VOYONS

The Theatre Voyons offers today a picture that appeals alike to the lovers of sport, to the lovers of beauty and to the lovers of the unusual. It is a special picture of Miss Annett Kellerman, the world's greatest woman swimmer, and the highest skilled vaudeville artist of her sex. There is no doubt that she is the most graceful diver ever seen and her trick and

Bring your Hallet & Davis "Book-Name" Contest certificate to RING'S, 110 Merrimack St., and get full credit for it towards the purchase of a piano.

They diving is performed with a sureness and skill that cause the most expert to sit up and take notice. There are several other pictures on the bill notably, "The Gibson Goddess," a very funny comedy, "A Trip Through Ceylon," a beautiful scenic picture and "A Bachelor's Reformation," a fine dramatic subject.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

At the Academy of Music, the program is changed on Monday and Thursday of each week, and nothing is allowed to get old at this popular place of amusement. Everything is new and up-to-date and carefully selected. At each performance will be seen the Melrose Bros., novelty acrobats, who present some very difficult feats of tumbling. Ernest Dupille, is very entertaining in monologues and character songs. The biograph features "The Gibson Goddess," is entirely different from the usual run of work done by this excellent stock company.

The many friends of Mr. David A. McHugh, the well known letter carrier, will be pained to learn that he is seriously ill at St. John's hospital.

MADAME STEINHEIL

Made a Passionate Appeal to the Jury Today

PARIS, Nov. 5.—The Steinheil case was again the center of intense interest today. Contrary to expectation Madame Steinheil again took the stand, it having been decided to resume the direct interrogatory addressed to her yesterday. She plainly showed the effects of the trying ordeal she had passed through during the last two days. Great black rings were distinguishable under her eyes and her face was almost colorless. Nevertheless she rose to her feet when the inquiry began and responded bravely to the examination.

youth whose parents have stated that she followed the case passionately and had previously attempted to intervene with anonymous letters addressed to the examining magistrate. Judge De Vales then turned his attention to Madame Steinheil. He confronted her with various conflicting statements she had previously made regarding the occurrences on the night of the crime. He also questioned her closely on the involved financial condition of the Steinheil household at the time of the murders.

Madame Steinheil's composure gradually gave way before the succession of sharp interrogatories. Her feeling at last found expression in an agonized flood of words in which she appealed to the jury to believe in her innocence, complaining bitterly that in the hour of

Steinheil, who said:
"No, I am not at all fatigued."
In opening the preceding Judge De Vales dealt with the appearance of Rene Collard, an actor, who caused a momentary sensation by asserting that he was the real assassin. Judge De Vales disposed of this incident as pure invention.

"It is nothing more than a joke," said the court. "The inquiry has established that this was a crack-brained

A LITTLE RED SPOT

Novel Experiment by Which it May Be Made to Disappear

A peculiar feature about psoriasis, the new skin discovery, is that no one is asked to buy it without first sending to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City, for an experimental sample and applying same to an affected part of the skin, about the size of a silver dollar. It will clear the spot so treated in twenty-four hours—a remarkable visual demonstration of its powers.

While psoriasis has been mentioned principally in connection with the cure of eczema, the most stubborn of skin diseases, it must be remembered that when used for itchy, hives, pimples, blotches, acne, itching feet, scaly scalp, chafing of infants and similar minor skin troubles its action is all the more pronounced, results being seen after an overnight application. As only a small quantity of psoriasis is necessary to cure such cases, a special fifty-cent package, usually sufficient, has been placed on sale at Fells & Burkinshaw's, Carter & Sherburne's and other leading drug stores in Lowell and throughout the country.

her misfortune she had been deserted by high political friends, asserting also that a society woman who had frequented her home had now deserted her.

Notwithstanding this passionate appeal, Judge De Vales pursued his interrogatories relentlessly. When he pinned her down with proof that she had concealed jewels which she afterwards had stolen she turned her back on him and with crossed arms and flashing eyes admitted that she had done so, justifying her action by the motherly instinct of shielding her daughter from the knowledge that these jewels had come from her lover.

The prisoner indignantly declared that her sensational attempt to revive the case last fall by an accusation against young Wolf, the son of the cook in the Steinheil household, was at the instance of her lover, Maurice Borderel, the merchant whom it was supposed she desired to marry, and in an effort to clear herself.

"Borderel had passed out of my life," said Madame Steinheil, "and I had no thought of him. My sole solicitude was to save my daughter's engagement to Pierre Buisson."

In an interview today Borderel reaffirmed his faith in the innocence of Madame Steinheil, saying that she knew that marriage with him would be impossible and therefore that the alleged motive for the murder of her husband was untenable.

"She did not revive the case on my account, for she knew the woman that I had loved was not the woman whose intrigues with Maurice Chouannard, Balmcourt and so many others have been exposed."

The judge continued doggedly to force the prisoner to retrace step by step her actions during the feverish months following the crime, confronting her at every turn with some new story which she had told or compelling her to explain over and over again why she had accused wrongfully Buisson—the American newspaperman, Couillard, the servant, and young Wolf. Upon each occasion Madame Steinheil found refuge behind the plea that in her frenzied desire to clear herself from the awful imputation that she had murdered her husband and mother she had seized upon any suggestion that came into her head. Judge De Vales was particularly severe in his cross-examination as to the lack of feeling displayed by the prisoner at her mother's funeral.

At one time when Madame Steinheil declared that Couillard had fled the judge interrupted sharply with the exclamation: "But you also lied!" At this M. Aubin sprang to his feet and protested against the remark of the court. Judge De Vales retorted: "I am justified in saying that the accused has never ceased to lie concerning this affair. Her stories are tissues of lies."

Late in the afternoon the proceedings were suspended for a short time. When they resumed Madame Steinheil had a brief respite, her examination being suspended while the first deposition of witnesses was read. This introduced a description of the condition of the house following the crime.

Although today's session of the court did not begin until 12:20 p. m. the ordeal was so severe that before the afternoon had passed it had been necessary to interrupt the proceedings several times in order that the accused woman might be given sips of ether to quiet her agitation.

PRESIDENT TAFT

Paid a Tribute to United States Army and Navy

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 5.—President

Taft up until nearly three o'clock this morning as a result of the banquet served in his honor last night at the De Soto hotel, slept late today and delayed the start of the program of sight-seeing arranged for his last day in Savannah by nearly an hour. After breakfast at the Gordon home this morning, the president boarded the revenue cutter Yamacraw for an hour's sail on the river. The river trip ended, the president was taken for a fast ride over the beautiful auto course over which the Grand Prize races were run last fall. On the way back to the station to take the train for Charleston, the president passed before all the school children of the city, both white and colored. President Taft is the fifth president of the United States to visit Savannah during his term of office: Washington, Monroe, Cleveland, McKinley preceded Mr. Taft and Gen. Grant came to the city shortly before he had laid down the reins of government. Mr. Taft made a very happy speech at the banquet early this morning. He was the last speaker on the long program. The president made a hit by referring to "Ty" Cobb, the famous batsman of the Detroit baseball team as one of the distinguished citizens of Georgia. He paid a tribute to the United States army and navy and agreed with Rear-Admiral Sperry, who had responded to a toast of the navy, that there was no act in the wonderful, useful and inspiring administration of Theodore Roosevelt to which we are more indebted than the sending of the sixteen battleships around the world.

Referring to the canal the president repeated his promise that it will be completed by Jan. 15, 1915. The president said it took a strong man to supervise the work as secretary of war so he chose a southerner, Judge Dickinson, a man of wonderful ingenuity and a "stormer of the branches."

CRUSHED TO DEATH

Young Man Caught Between Elevator and Floor

Athanasios J. Charissis, otherwise called Arthur George, aged 28, was crushed to death in an elevator accident at the Lowell Rendering Works at South Lowell.

It is believed that he was caught between the elevator and the floor of an upper story as he was about to step from the elevator to a room while the elevator was in motion. He was not quick enough and was jammed in between the floor and the elevator.

Charissis was alone at the time and hence the exact cause of the accident can not be determined. The ambulance was summoned and Charissis was taken in an unconscious condition to St. John's hospital.

A quick examination showed that he could not possibly live. He had a fracture at the base of the skull, a dislocated shoulder, broken collar bone and several fractured ribs. The fracture at the base of the skull was enough to cause death, but one rib had punctured a lung, and he could breathe only with difficulty.

He died within an hour. Medical Examiner Meigs examined the body. An inquest may be held shortly as to the exact cause of the affair.

Charissis had been in this country a short time, and has a wife and family in Greece. A cousin is the only immediate relative in this country. The body was removed to the rooms of Undertakers C. H. Molloy & Sons.

ROBBED OF $14,156

Cashier of Canadian Express Co. Attacked by Unknown Men

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Nov. 5.—William Dolson, cashier of the Canadian Express company here, was sandwiched yesterday afternoon in the company's office at the Grand Trunk station in Bridge street and a package containing $14,156 was taken from him by two unknown men. The robbery was committed in broad daylight with a score of station employees within 20 feet of the office. Dolson was alone at the time, the other men in the office having gone to meet a train. The two men entered and one asked if a trunk had arrived for him. As Dolson stooped over to get his "on hand" book, one of the men reached over the counter and hit him behind the ear with a sandbag or a piece of iron. Five minutes later Dolson was found lying unconscious on the floor in a pool of blood by R. B. Brown, the local agent.

He did not recover consciousness for about an hour and was then unable to give a good description of the two men.

It is evident that the robbery had been carefully planned and the habits of the station employees had been closely studied. All the men working near Cashier Dolson had something to do upon the arrival or departure of a train which called them out on the station platform. The attack was made just as a train thundered into the little station and the employees were walking out to meet it. This not only drowned the sound of a possible outcry by the cashier, but gave the robbers a few minutes in which to get away before the return of the others.

The money was in five consignments from the Imperial bank branches in this city and at St. David's, Ontario, and was bound for Toronto and Buffalo banks. Dolson was just about to put the packages in a sack and place it on Grand Trunk train No. 25 when the robbery occurred.

RADIANT HAIR

New York Society Women's Hair Matched Only by Parisians

While much attention is given to choicest gowns by New York society women, the turbulent fall just now is the care of the hair.

For many years the clever women of Paris have been famed for the magnificent beauty of their hair. "Glorious hair," a Virginian calls it, "so radiant and luxuriant that it not only attracts but fascinates, and compels unqualified admiration."

But now that the elite of New York, ever anxious to improve their beauty, have learned that Parisian Sage, a remarkable and almost marvelous hair nourisher and beautifier, is almost entirely responsible for the charming hair of the ladies of France, the demand for it has become enormous.

A Philadelphia chemist who analyzed Parisian Sage said: "It is the ideal dressing for the hair. The ingredients are so scientifically combined that Parisian Sage is first of all a hair grower, because it surely develops dry, druff germs, and nourishes the hair roots."

"Second, it puts life, substance and brilliancy into the hair, which improves the attractiveness of any one."

"Third, it is very delicately scented; does not contain sticky or greasy, and does not contain one atom of anything that could possibly injure scalp or hair."

Parisian Sage is now sold all over America by progressive druggists, and in Lowell by Carter & Sherburne who are glad to guarantee it to eradicate dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

It is the finest dressing for children's hair that money can buy, and best of all, the price puts it where every family can afford to use it. A large, generous bottle for 50 cents. Made in America by (Thron Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y., who fill mail orders, charge prepaid, on receipt of 50 cents. This is the Auburn hair is on every package.

STORMY MEETING JOE THOMAS WON

Mrs. Stetson Exonerated of Charges

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Mrs. August E. Stetson, formerly head reader of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in this city, was exonerated yesterday of charges of "mental malpractice" in the report of a special board of inquiry, presented to a congregation of 2000 persons at a long and stormy meeting in the big white stone church on Central Park West. The exonerated of Mrs. Stetson was endorsed by the members of the church, but a portion of the board's report which concerned Virgil Strickler, her successor as first reader, who had appeared in Boston as a witness against Mrs. Stetson, was referred back to the board of inquiry for further consideration.

The congregation, all members of which underwent close scrutiny before being admitted, began the consideration of the case at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The session lasted six hours, and it was only after a heated debate and various parliamentary interruptions that the congregation voted its endorsement by a close margin of the report in Mrs. Stetson's favor.

Twenty-eight charges had been made against Mrs. Stetson at the instance of the board of directors of the mother church in Boston. Thereupon the inquiry was ordered by the trustees of the New York church at the request of Mrs. Stetson, who meanwhile was deposed from her position as authorized reader.

Among the charges the most important were, in effect, that Mrs. Stetson's teachings tended to disloyalty to Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, founder and leader of the sect, and that Mrs. Stetson was guilty of mental malpractice in bringing Christian Science to bear upon people who did not welcome "by hypnotism, and similar methods."

The report of the board of inquiry which followed four weeks' examination of witnesses, the taking of 1000 pages of testimony and 25 sittings of the board, was a complete exoneration of Mrs. Stetson, and a declaration of loyalty of the New York church to the Mother church in Boston.

The report says: "These false reports were concocted and developed by malicious and unscrupulous persons, which is the opposite and opponent of Christian Science, and they were circulated by persons who did not properly protect themselves against aggressive mental suggestion as enjoined by our beloved leader."

OLD LADIES' HOME

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Old Ladies' Home was held yesterday. It was also the annual meeting for the election of officers and committees. Mrs. George F. Richardson was re-elected chairman, and Mrs. Samuel Young was re-elected secretary. All of last year's committees were re-elected.

Defeated Jack Fitzgerald in Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—Joe Thomas of San Francisco had the better of Jack Fitzgerald of West Philadelphia in the windup at the Broadway A. C. last night. Fitzgerald had the advantage in weight, but he failed to land as clean blows. Thomas fought a classy fight in the earlier rounds, but showed up in the last two rounds, in which the West Philadelphia boy did some good fighting in the clinches. The bout was one of the slowest at this club for some time. The only round in which there was much action was the fourth.

NEW METHOD OF TREATING DANDRUFF

There has been a mistaken idea for years that frequent washing is bad for the hair. The result is that nearly everybody has more or less hair trouble. Practically everybody has dandruff, and hundreds of others have hair that is too oily, or too dry, or hair that is faded and lifeless. The result of all these troubles is falling hair, and after that comes baldness. There are hundreds of humbugs sold under various names that are said to make beautiful hair, and that are said to cure dandruff, but they are worse than useless. Common soaps and common shampoos leave the hair in a worse condition than it was before. There is one preparation for the hair that is so good that the ingredients of which it is made are printed on the package. This is the new scientific preparation called Brl's Head Wash, which is made of Refined Soap, Coclin Cocoanut Oil, White of Eggs, Glycerine and Salicylic Acid. Any doctor will tell you it is a good formula. It removes the dirt, dandruff and microbes from the hair, and leaves the scalp soft and moist and the hair fine and glossy. Price, 50 cents a jar.

THE LIBERALS WON

British House of Commons Passed Budget 379 to 149

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The house of commons last night passed the third reading of the finance bill by a vote of 379 to 149.

The nationalists abstained from voting. The unionists had hoped that the nationalists would join them in opposition to the budget.

The scene was a memorable one. Sedition has there been a larger attendance of members and peers, and the diplomatic galleries were crowded to their utmost capacity. Chancellor Lloyd-George, Premier Asquith and Mr. Balfour, leader of the opposition, all spoke during the evening and tense excitement prevailed throughout. All present appeared to be imbued with the historic character of the occasion.

Mr. Asquith, in a brief speech closing the debate, said that it was incumbent upon those who objected to the government's taxes to provide some alternative scheme to meet the nation's necessities. Where was this scheme? he asked. Sooner or later Mr. Balfour must show his hand, and it would have to be a hand that would suit the game of the tariff reformers.

The government, continued the premier, might well be content to rest in patience. There were only two issues before the house—the taxes proposed by the budget or tariff reform.

Division was then taken and the announcement of the vote, showing that the government's majority was larger than had been expected, was greeted with prolonged ministerial cheers. The conservatives had counted upon a score of liberal abstentions, but apparently only two liberals joined the nationalists in abstaining from voting.

The bill will be formally passed on its first reading in the house of lords today. The debate on the second reading, which will determine its fate, will begin Nov. 22.

DOUBLE LYNCHING

Was Prevented By the State Guard

GASSAWAY, W. Va., Nov. 5.—Early today the authorities transferred the two negro suspects believed to have been implicated in the dastardly assault upon Mrs. George Lockhold on Wednesday to a strong refuge at Sutton, W. Va., the county seat.

Gov. Glasscock's timely arrival on the scene and the presence of the state guard had much to do with the averting of what seemed to be an inevitable double lynching last night. As late as midnight rumors were afloat about this little place that the negro suspects would never be taken alive from the town. Mounted men guarded the roads until daylight to prevent the authorities from transferring the negroes. Seeing the temper of the crowd the sheriff gave his word that the transfer would not be attempted during the night hours. The negroes were taken to Sutton at 7 a. m. and shortly afterward Gov. Glasscock left for the capital.

Mrs. George Lockhold upon whom the negroes made their terrible assault, lies today in a serious condition in Sutton. Feared for her sanity. Her husband remains here watching.

ing the result of the sheriff's attempt to preserve order and see that the law takes its course.

Details brought out at the coroner's hearing over the body of a third negro, who according to the sheriff, was one of the trio who assaulted Mrs. Lockhold and who was instantly killed when he attempted to escape capture were revolting. Such another crime has not been heard of in the state in years. The dead negro was buried in the potter's field during the night. His grave was unmarked for fear vandals might desecrate the spot.

A FINE PROGRAM

At Fair of Mt. Zion Lodge

There was a very large attendance at the Mt. Zion lodge fair in Good Templars hall last night, the attendance being even larger than it was on the opening night. A very entertaining concert program was carried out during the early part of the evening.

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1908 was

15,956

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1909. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

INFLUENCE OF THE STAGE.

There is no mystery whatever about the stage and its influences. If it presents good plays it may convey the most forcible moral lessons; if it presents bad plays it may dispense the worst kind of moral poison. A continuous censorship is, therefore, necessary in order to keep the stage from descending to what would demoralize rather than uplift and edify.

THE THIRD DEGREE.

The play of the Third Degree, presented here a few weeks ago, exposes one of the worst evils connected with police work and incidentally shows the possibility of punishing innocent men for serious crimes. It is well that the police departments of Massachusetts must caution prisoners that anything they say when under pressure of this kind will be used against them. The Third Degree in its effort to expose yellow journalism, fails to distinguish clearly between the good and the bad.

THE SENTENCES FOR CONTEMPT.

Now that the court of appeals has confirmed the sentence of Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison for contempt of court, considerable sympathy will be felt for these three gentlemen if it appears that they must go to prison and serve sentence. They incurred the liability for contempt by misjudging the privileges which the law allowed them in the exercise of their rights. It is to be hoped that some means will be found to mitigate the severe sentence passed upon them.

President Gompers says he and his colleagues will fight to the end, which means, we presume, that they will take the case to the supreme court of the United States. So emphatic and so sweeping have been the statements made by the court of appeals in the recent decision, that there seems to be very little ground for expecting any decision much different from the higher tribunal.

THE SELF-CONSTITUTED CRITICS.

It must have occurred to every observant citizen that we have in Lowell a great many people who spend their time mainly in attending to everybody's business but their own. They are so deeply interested in what this or that citizen does, what this or that citizen has to say, or what he is doing, that they have very little time to attend to their own affairs. They constitute themselves not only public but private censors, and to speak figuratively, although themselves living in the most flimsy kind of glass houses, they never cease to throw stones. They assail private citizens as well as public officials, and the man who does not conform to their peculiar standards is sure to come in for liberal abuse. The man who does not incur their censure can make up his mind that he has never done much that is worthy of praise. The class of evils that cannot be cured must evidently be endured, and so we presume it will be with the individuals mentioned so long as they find anybody to listen to their calumnies.

TRYING TO EXPLAIN RESULTS.

The republicans are trying to explain how and why it all happened; why Vahney and Foss made such a sweep in Lowell; why Purcell was elected register, and various other things shown by the results of Tuesday's election. Lowell, we are glad to say, arose to the occasion and did her full duty in protesting against the betrayal of the republican party on the tariff measure, against republican opposition to the income tax and against Governor Draper's opposition to organized labor.

It is useless for republicans to try to explain the results in Lowell by charging any committee with apathy. That is nonsense.

The people are tired of republican bossism, tired of republican extortion, and not all the republican activity that could have been aroused here could have changed the result.

In regard to the election of Mr. Purcell as register, the republicans wonder how that happened. Well, one reason was that the republican candidate did not get enough votes. It is charged, too, in certain quarters that Mr. Purcell is not the right man for the place, and the chief objection is that he is a democrat. We venture to say he will perform the duties of the office in a highly satisfactory manner and that he will never disgrace either himself or his party.

THE HOOKWORM DISEASE.

Mr. Rockefeller has donated a million dollars out of his plethoric purse for the purpose of fighting the hookworm disease in the south. It is alleged that there are nearly a million cases of this disease in the southern states due to the ravages of the hookworm parasite.

The effect of this disease is to render the patients lazy, indolent and shiftless. They become affected with a sort of anemia in which it is the greatest toil for them even to move about. People in this condition might as well be dead as alive almost. It has been considered in the past a disease of the poorer people and due to poor living, but of late it has been found to invade the homes of the rich as well as the poor. It is decidedly a national menace and it is to be hoped that good results will come from the use of Mr. Rockefeller's appropriation for preventive measures.

Another disease that is becoming prevalent in the southern states is that known as pellagra. It causes a sealy affection of the skin on the parts of the body exposed to the air and is very annoying. Some cases of this disease have appeared in Massachusetts. The secretary of the treasury has approved the appointment of a commission of officers of the Public Health and Marine Hospital service to investigate this disease and they are to meet at Columbia, S. C., in a few days to start the work. It is believed that the commission will find that this disease is also due to the action of a specific parasite.

Some doctors who have studied both the diseases mentioned are inclined to the belief that pellagra is also a result of the hookworm parasite, but this theory has not yet been scientifically demonstrated.

SEEN AND HEARD

MORNING PRAYER.

Oh, may I be brave today, today!
And may I be kind and true,
And greet all men in a gracious way,
And put good cheer in the things I say.
And love in the deeds I do,
May the honest heart of a child be
mine.
And the grace of a rose in bloom;
Let me fill the day with a hope divine;
And turn my face to the sky's glad shine.
With never a cloud of gloom.
With the golden levers of Love and
Light.
I would lift the world and when,
Through a path with kindly deeds
made bright,
I come to the hush of the starlit night,
I would rest in peace, Amen.

department were talking of some of their experiences with new officers, the other day. Their stories were interesting and some of them humorous. When the supply of "yarns" had about run out, one of them said: "By the way, I forgot to tell what I consider ingratitude all right. I recall that there was a certain woman arrested those 'favored' by the woman, on Sundays, was a man who resided in the neighborhood in which she lived. For several years, it was said, he could secure his pint or half pint on Sunday. The time came when he was appointed to the police force, and a short time later he went to this woman's house and it is claimed secured a bottle of whiskey. Just as he placed it in his pocket, the liquor officers stepped in, secured the bottle from the officer who was supposed to be a friend of the woman, and had a warrant sworn out charging her with an illegal sale. That struck me as being about the limit to which a 'friend' could go."

That there is more than a single way to rebuke one who is inclined to prevarication is shown by a conversation which took place in a club the other night.

One of the members, after a long silence, broke it by starting to tell one of his hunting experiences. "Well sir," said the speaker, "about a year ago when I went on a hunting trip with two of my friends I shot into a covey of birds. Got right into the midst of them. Fired away blindly. Will you believe I got four birds with every shot."

The listeners were politely interested, with the exception of one man, who was known for his dislike for fish stories.

"Well, that is rather remarkable, I'll admit but I hardly compares with an experience I had on the country. I went out with my rifle to hunt for frogs. I had just crossed a field when I came to a large lily pond when I was astounded to see sitting on the lily pads about a hundred frogs. I lifted my rifle to my shoulder and let her go."

"Well, what of it?" said the first speaker. "Well, what do you suppose. The minute my gun went off every one of them croaked."

The following is from "Strollers" column in the Portland Evening Express:

With many candidates in the field for mayor the coming election will no doubt be made more lively by the news that Joe Rancourt has announced that he, too, will be a candidate for mayor this fall. Here is his letter to the Stroller:

CHILD LABOR LAWS CALVARY CHURCH

Five Changes in Them are to be Made To Be Dedicated By Special Service Sunday

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—The question of new child labor laws in this state was discussed at a conference of social and educational workers in the Twentieth Century club last evening.

Prof. Paul H. Hanus of Harvard university presided at the meeting and there were present several members of the Boston school committee, Judge De Courcy, Mrs. Keough, Miss Alice Higgins, Mr. J. H. Davis, Mr. Bradley, Howard Brown, R. H. Conant and some 30 other persons prominent as educators or social workers.

A committee has had the subject under investigation and study for a year, and as a result of this investigation it was found that Massachusetts was behind some 10 other states in its child labor laws.

The committee proposed six separate subjects to be presented to the committee on labor at the next session of the legislature and five of these were approved by the conference as follows:

First—Shortening of the day's work for children under 16 years of age. It was proposed that 54 hours be considered a week's work.

Second—Night work for children. It was decided that night work should be regulated.

Third—Physical examination of children. It was decided that school committees or boards of health should attend to the physical examination of children between the age of 14 and 19 who wished to go to work.

Fourth—Dangerous occupations. It was decided that the scope of the present law should be enlarged to include a greater number of occupations. The law at present only specifies elevators, breweries, saloons and theatres.

Fifth—Licensing minors engaged in street employments. It was proposed that in cities of over 10,000 inhabitants the licensing of minors under 16 be placed in the hands of school committees.

The Calvary Baptist church at the corner of Liberty and Hastings streets will be dedicated by special services on Sunday next. The new church is the successor to the Branch Street Tabernacle that was sold about two years ago.

The dedicatory services will be held in the main auditorium on Sunday morning at 10.30. The service will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. Reed Ditts, and the sermon will be delivered by Rev. Geo. R. Stair of Middlebury, Vt., an evangelist and preacher of note. Rev. E. A. Whittier of Lawrence, the first pastor of the church, will make the dedicatory prayer. There will be special music under the direction of the organist, Frank B. Hill. The Sunday school session at noon will be a special rally day service.

Beginning on Sunday evening, fifteen days of evangelistic services will be started by a service at 6.30, led by Rev. George R. Stair. These evangelistic meetings will continue daily at 7.45 p. m. for 15 days and the Highland Congregational and Highland M. E. churches will unite with the Calvary Baptist in conducting them.

The church building is modern, attractive and well appointed. Architects Stickney, Austin & Bourke of Boston and Lowell prepared the plans which were approved by the building committee. The building committee consisted of Richard Gumb, William F. Hill, Frank B. Hill, Albert Pearsall, Samuel G. Stephens, Rev. Asa Reed Ditts, Mrs. George O. Hutchins, Justin

N. Dows and William A. Morse. The keys of the church will be presented by Mr. Stephens, the secretary of the building committee, and will be received by Richard Gumb, chairman of the finance committee.

The building cost about $30,000, the organ $4,000, and the land $5,000. With the Sunday school utilized, which is immediately at the rear of the auditorium, the seating capacity is about 700.

The auditorium floor is of hard wood and the aisles are carpeted. The steeple, too in number exclusive of those along the walls, converge toward the pulpit. The walls are light green except for the four foot wainscoting of dark oak, and the trimmings are ivory. The trusses along the sides of the walls at the ceilings are heavy dark oak beams and they are supporting heavy colored metal cross-pieces to stiffen the upper structure. The ceiling is light green, the walls being angled near the top and meeting the ceiling on a slant. There are tasteful stencillings as mural decorations.

The work of the building was done by the following: Foundation, William H. Fuller; brick and granite work, Patrick Conlon; carpenter work, William H. Penn; plastering, E. F. Crosby; painting and decorating, Dwyer & Co.; heating, Gaffney & Kerwin; plumbing, Farrell & Conant; electric wiring, Derby & Morse; electric fixtures, Leighton & Graham; slating, James Burns; iron work, Chelmsford Iron Foundry; pews and pulpit furniture, American Seating Co.; organ, William B. Goodwin.

The new edifice will be a great addition to the neighborhood in which it stands, will be an efficient aid to the society in carrying on its appointed work, and will be a monument to the good sense and practical ideas of the building committee.

The Branch Street Baptist church, known as the Branch Street Tabernacle, was organized July 1, 1869, with Rev. E. A. Whittier as its first pastor. The old church edifice was dedicated Jan. 16, 1872, the corner stone being laid in 1871. The new corner stone of the Calvary Baptist church bears the dates, 1871—1908.

Lyle who admits the double killing but says he did it in self defense has surrendered to the authorities at Smeedville.

The feud originated some years ago with the killing of Eli Greene an agent man who was shot from ambush while he was harycasing. Yount married a daughter of the elder Greene and Davis wedded his widow. Bad feeling existed between Davis and Yount and it is supposed that George Greene, a son of the murdered man, took Yount's part in the fight. Yount and Greene were unarmed.

MEN HIGHER UP

Wanted in the Alleged Fraud Cases

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Investigation by the federal government into the sugar underweighting frauds was continued with unabated vigor today. With evidence before them pointing to the conclusion that frauds at the sugar docks were kept up long after the exposure in the raid on the Williamsburg docks in 1905 the government investigators it was reported today were on the trail of men "higher up."

Yesterday's indictment and arraignment of Joseph Donelson, a government weigher, for frauds alleged to have been committed at a date subsequent to the first exposures, was said to be only a step in the process by which further revelations, possibly of a startling nature, were to be made.

J. W. HATFIELD

Given a Sentence of Five Years

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 5.—With the admission that he had committed a crime and was willing to take his medicine but imploring the court to release him from prison before he became a gray haired old man, J. W. Hatfield, one of the last survivors of the famous Hatfield-McCoy feud in Kentucky and a rough rider who fought at San Juan, told Judge Davis yesterday in the superior court that he had run away with 14 year old Pearl Eastman of Ventura county because he wanted to marry her. He was sentenced to five years in San Quentin, the minimum under the law.

He accepted sentence without a word.

COLONEL GEORGE R. COLTON PORTO RICO'S NEW GOVERNOR

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Colonel George R. Colton, the new governor of Porto Rico, will assume charge of his post on Nov. 8. Colonel Colton has had a notably successful career in the service of the government. It was he who first took charge of the customs of Santo Domingo under the treaty between that country and the United States. When everything was running smoothly in Santo Domingo he was sent to the Philippines on the recommendation of Mr. Taft, who was then secretary of war. He had charge of the fiscal affairs of the islands and drafted the Philippine tariff, which was passed by the senate the same day as the Aldrich-Vreene bill. He succeeded Governor Post in Porto Rico, the latter having sent in his resignation some time ago.

NARROW ESCAPE

Aviator Had a Thrilling Experience

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 5.—While attempting to follow the auto parade at the head of which President Taft rode through Savannah last night, Fred Owens, an aviator, had a thrilling experience in a dirigible balloon, narrowly escaping death.

He sailed from Forsythe park extension while a big government searchlight played on the air craft. Just as his and another airship turned in behind the parade 200 feet in the air a connecting wire on Owens' motor broke and the motor stopped. A high wind was blowing and it tossed the helpless airship upward to 1000 feet and drove it towards the Savannah river and the ocean.

Owens fought hard trying to reconnect the wire but repeated heavy electric shocks soon taught him not to touch it. He was "lost" for fifteen minutes while the searchlight sought in vain for him and thousands of persons scattered to the river banks and the outskirts to render him aid should he fall. Several times he was almost swept from his seat but the airship was finally brought down in safety in some railroad yards east of the city. Except for the shocks Owens was unhurt and his machine was little damaged.

CHARGES ARE MADE

Against the License Commissioners in Haverhill

HAVERHILL, Nov. 5.—The Haverhill no-license league sprang a surprise yesterday, when formal charges were preferred against Haber F. McKenna, Herbert F. Taylor and John M. Roche, license commissioners, by Rev. F. B. Greul, D. D., an official of the league. The removal of the commissioners was requested.

Mayor Moulton and the four aldermen took no action upon the charges at the informal meeting of the municipal council yesterday afternoon, but at the public session last night a hearing was ordered for Friday evening, Nov. 12.

As reason for Dr. Greul's petition for removal the following charges were made against each member of the board of license commissioners:

That each member has voted to grant licenses to unfit persons.

That each member has voted to grant licenses to persons who have within the past year been convicted of violation of the laws relating to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

That each member has voted to grant and the board has caused to be issued licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors to persons whom they knew, or had reason to know, were unfit, because of the manner in which they had previously conducted their business and because they had been found guilty in the central district court of northern Essex county of violations of the law relating to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

That each member voted to grant licenses as common victualers to persons and firms who at the time of making of the application therefor did not have upon their premises the necessary implements and facilities for cooking, preparing and serving food for strangers and travelers as required by the laws of the commonwealth, relating to the granting of licenses to common victualers.

That each member voted to grant licenses as common victualers to persons and firms who at the time of making of the application therefor did not have upon their premises the necessary implements and facilities for cooking, preparing and serving food for strangers and travelers as required by the laws of the commonwealth, relating to the granting of licenses to common victualers.

That each member has failed to conform to the laws of the commonwealth in the granting of licenses to common victualers and for the sale of intoxicating liquors.

That each member of the board of license commissioners has failed to perform the duties of his office faithfully and impartially.

Dr. Greul says that the no-license league has employed Melvin Johnson, as its counsel and that he will represent that organization at the hearing before the municipal council.

Clothes worn by Miss Amelia St. Jean, were found near Mt. Hope bay, between Tiverton and Fall River. Their identification was the first clue to the identity of the victim.

Then the police took into custody "Prof." Hill, who had maintained a "herb doctor's" office, and Wilfrid Thibault, a chauffeur, both of whom admitted having known the young woman to be in a delicate condition. Hill further admitted having consulted with Miss St. Jean when she sought relief.

In the police court, Oct. 15, both were charged with murder, but Thibault was released a week later. At the preliminary examination given Hill later the government presented a case which was deemed sufficient to warrant further detention, and he was found probably guilty and bound over for action by the grand jury.

The exact cause of the death of Miss St. Jean, as developed at the second autopsy held by the Massachusetts authorities in Fall River, has never been made public. Other details of the prosecution's case which might aid in construction of the case by which the defense will endeavor to absolve their client from responsibility for the girl's death are also held a secret.

The fact that Hill is held for manslaughter, instead of murder, under which charge he has up to the present time been detained, is alone new, aside from the fact of the indictment being returned. Lack of direct evidence of the committing of the crime is believed to have made necessary this change by the government.

It is not yet a month since the first of the several portions of a young woman's body were found beside Bulger marsh road in Tiverton, R. I. During the week succeeding Oct. 11 the body was completed, except for the head, by the finding of other portions in the vicinity.

Is Your Life Worth Living?

When the liver refuses to perform its functions of secreting bile, and the bowels become inactive and loaded with foul waste materials, the effect on the mind is most distressing. Gloomy forebodings drive out the sunshine. You are nervous and fretful. Life is not worth living. What ails you? It's your liver on a strike. Congested, torpid, sulky, it refuses to perform its functions.

What's to be done? Take one or two Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills after dinner and again at night. In the morning you will feel different. The sun will shine. What's the reason? Your liver has resumed business, that's all. These wonderful little pills have set it going. With clear brain, keen appetite, you will enjoy life again. Take one occasionally for a week or so and your blood will be purged of impurities and its bright red food will carry health to your finger tips. Physicians use and recommend. They form no habit. You should always keep them on hand. These little Vegetable Pills will ward off many ills.

EXTRA BOY CONFESSED

That He Tried to Extort Money From President of Bank

DANVILLE, Ill., Nov. 5.—Ben Johnson, a high school boy, confessed today, according to the police, that it was he who attempted with threats of murder to extort money from Pres. English of the First National Bank, Danville, Ill., a prominent young man who has been a jail for several days charged with the crime, was released. Johnson, his face blackened with

FORMER PROPRIETORS Of Independent Companies Testi- fy in the Ice Cases

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Supplementing a mass of documentary evidence showing the acquisition of numerous independent plants by the American Ice company, the state today in the trial of that company for alleged violation of the anti-monopoly law began taking the testimony of former proprietors of independent ice companies who had sold out their plants to the American.

Edward C. Clifford, formerly an independent wholesaler of ice who sold out his business to the big company and entered its employ, testified to the conditions in the district of this city which he supervised for the so-called trust. Independent companies, he stated, had to secure their ice from distant points because the American controlled all the ice bridges along the Hudson in his territory. The ice bridge

THE ASTOR CASE

Papers Turned Over to Referee Young

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The papers in the suit for divorce which Mrs. John Jacob Astor is reported to have brought against her husband, Col. Astor, are now in their completed state and were turned over today by Referee Young to counsel for both parties in the suit.

Neither Mr. Young nor counsel would discuss in any way the report that the papers recommended a decree in favor of Mrs. Astor. The custody of their daughter Alice, 7, is set to have been given to Mrs. Astor while Col. Astor, it is reported will be given the custody of their son William, 17 years old. The papers will be later submitted to the court and the decree made public.

SURPRISE PARTY

MR. LAPLANTE REMEMBERED BY HIS FRIENDS

Mr. Joseph Laplante, the popular Moody street grocer, was pleasantly surprised at his home, 88 Ford street, last evening by a party of friends headed by his two clerks, Messrs. W. Laidie and Victor Laine. It seems that Mr. Laplante has recently added an office to his store and the gifts presented him were a handsome high stool and a beautiful pipe. The presentation speech was made by Victor Laine. Mr. Laplante, though completely surprised, made a graceful speech of thanks. Mrs. Laplante was presented a fine sweater and some roses, Mrs. Laine making the second presentation speech. After the presentations refreshments were served and an most pleasant evening enjoyed.

COL. ROOSEVELT

The Report That He Was Killed is Not Credited

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—A rumor that ex-President Roosevelt had been killed on his hunting trip in Africa was refuted in Washington this morning, but diligent search failed to reveal the slightest foundation for it. Inquiries from many parts of the country make it evident that the rumor is widespread. At the Smithsonian institution not the slightest word of such a fatality or even of an accident had been received. The state department which would be most likely to be notified by its consular officers in Africa had received no such news. Confidential information from a source whose reliability cannot be questioned was obtained here early this afternoon making it apparently absolutely certain that no tidings of any mishap to Mr. Roosevelt have reached this country by any of the ocean cables. This seems to establish the fact that the rumor is without foundation.

CITY SOLICITOR

Says Messrs. Harris and Mac- Brayne Must be Paid

According to City Solicitor Duncan former Police Commissioners Simon B. Harris and Winfred C. MacBrayne must be paid by the city for the time they served as commissioners. Ald. Tyler A. Stevens, chairman of the committee on accounts, requested an opinion of the city solicitor relative to this matter and the city solicitor answers as follows:

Lowell, Mass., Nov. 4, 1909.
Alderman Tyler A. Stevens,
Chairman Committee on Accounts,
Lowell.
Dear Sir:—I have your request for an opinion as to whether former Police Commissioners Simon B. Harris and

CITY SOLICITOR DUNCAN

Winfred C. MacBrayne are entitled to be paid by the city for the time during which they served as commissioners.

This question appears to be fully settled by the decision of the supreme court in the case of Taber vs New Bedford, 177 Mass. 199. In that case the court, referring to the status of the now license commissioners of New Bedford, appointed after the removal of the old commission by the mayor, pending the decision of the superior court on review, says that "Until the order removing the old board was revoked it was effectual. After the removal of the old board, the mayor had the right to appoint a new board at once." The new board, when appointed was a licensing board, not only de facto, but de jure. When the order of removal was "revoked" it was not rescinded from the beginning and made as if it had never been. That is not the meaning of "revoked" which imports that the order is in force until it is rescinded.

Unless the plans of the party have changed Col. Roosevelt should be now on the Guas Ingishu plateau. His last Londonian with several companions on Oct. 26, arriving at Aldama ravine on the following day. The last word from his immediate party was from Aldama ravine and was received in this country by way of Nairobi on October 27. At that time the party was preparing to proceed immediately for Guas Ingishu plateau. It was planned to return to London in five weeks. The Guas Ingishu plateau is a vast open plain in the north of Kismayu province. It is covered with grass and fringed on all sides with trees. It affords some of the best grazing lands in the British protectorate and is a hunting ground, the visit to which had been eagerly anticipated by Col. Roosevelt.

The direct route had not been determined so far as is known when the party left Aldama ravine but working westward by the most likely path the party would in a very few days be at Nandi Roma which is a British military station. News of their arrival at this point might be possible through native runners in the employ of the British military authorities. In this way news might be available but nothing has been received so far as known through these channels.

NO NEWS OF ACCIDENT

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Reports today that former President Roosevelt had lost his life while hunting in Africa were not credited by close friends of the former president, nor could the reports be traced to any authentic sources.

Douglas Robinson, the brother-in-law of Mr. Roosevelt and the only close relative of the former president in the city, said that he had not heard of any accident to Mr. Roosevelt, and declared that had Mr. Roosevelt suffered any accident he would have been informed immediately.

Lyman Abbott, editor of the Outlook, of which Mr. Roosevelt is an associate editor, said that he had not heard of any accident to Mr. Roosevelt, and that he believed any rumor to that effect was entirely unfounded. "I think we would have word if anything had happened to Mr. Roosevelt," said Mr. Abbott, "and I attach no significance to the rumors of his injury or death. The last word I had from him was by letter a few days ago in which he stated that he was very well as were all the members of his party."

Editors of the magazine now printing Mr. Roosevelt's African hunting stories said today that they had heard nothing recently from Mr. Roosevelt.

NO NEWS OF ACCIDENT

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The East African department of the Colonial office has heard nothing of any accident to Mr. Roosevelt. The officials state that it is inconceivable that anything serious could have happened to him and the fact not be reported by the governor to the Colonial office.

JAIL SENTENCE

For Veteran of the Civil War

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 5.—A jail sentence of but one year's duration was given John McKenna, an aged veteran of the Civil war, who on May 6 killed his comrade, Albert Morris, at the soldiers' home in Bristol. Sentence was pronounced in the superior court this afternoon by Justice Christopher Lee and is one of the most unusual in the history of the Rhode Island judiciary. McKenna and Morris, both old Grand Army men, were passing the few remaining years of their life at the home when one day they quarreled over the war. The case finally reached the superior court today with a charge of manslaughter against McKenna.

WRIGHT MACHINE

Met With Accident While Making a Flight Today

COLLEGE PARK, Md., Nov. 4.—The Wright aeroplane met with an accident this morning which will probably result in putting it out of commission for a day or two. Lieut. Lahm and Humphreys, making a flight shortly after 8 o'clock, while endeavoring to turn the biplane when only a few feet above the ground, found their engine working slowly and without sufficient force to swing the machine about. In consequence the left plane touched the ground causing the machine to lurch, breaking the right plane as well as the right skid that held the forward steering planes in place. The linen covering of the lower right hand plane was quite badly torn. Lieut. Lahm was controlling the machine at the time of the accident. Neither he nor Lieut. Humphreys received even a shock when the machine came down.

The accident occurred after the machine had been in the air about five minutes and had circled the aviation field several times. There was very little damage done. An examination will be made of the injured parts. The engine was wholly uninjured. Why it should have run slowly at the critical moment when a turn was being made could not be explained. The government's machinists immediately went to work to repair the machine. This is expected to occupy several days. Today's accident was the first serious one that has occurred since the army lieutenants have been practicing with the machine. It is the only one occurring during the absence of Mr. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregoire and Mr. Frank Montgomery have just returned from a business trip to New York.

SENATOR ALDRICH

Of Monetary Commission Starts on Tour of West

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—Attached to the Chicago special on the Pennsylvania railroad, which arrived here from New York shortly after 10 o'clock today was a special car carrying United States Senator Aldrich, who is just beginning his long-promised tour of the west as chairman of the monetary commission. Accompanying the senator was C. D. Norton, assistant secretary of the treasury, Prof. A. Platt Andrews, the special assistant of the commission and A. B. Shelton, secretary of the commission and personal representative of Senator Aldrich.

The party left New York at 8 o'clock and is due to arrive at Chicago tomorrow at 7.30 a. m. There the first stop will be made and there before the Commercial club the first official meeting with men of the west will take place.

The journey will consume about two weeks and the itinerary includes stops at a number of important cities of the middle west. After the Chicago speeches, addresses will be made by Mr. Aldrich as follows:
At St. Louis, Nov. 8; Kansas City, 9th; Omaha, 10th; Minneapolis, 12th; St. Paul, 13th; Milwaukee, 15th, and Detroit, 16th.

Leaving Detroit after the address on the night of the 16th Mr. Aldrich will return to New York on Wednesday, the 17th, and there on the next evening he will speak before the chamber of commerce. The senator has found it necessary to decline invitations from political organizations. Several have been received including one from the Hamilton club of Chicago.

WORLD'S RECORD

North Dakota is the Fastest of All Dreadnaughts

ROCKLAND, Me., Nov. 5.—The world's speed records for first-class battleships were broken yesterday, when the North Dakota raced over the measured mile off Rockland at the rate of 22.25 knots an hour, exceeding the stunt set by Uncle Sam by 1 1/4 knots and bettering the record of the sister ship Delaware, which at no time attained a speed of 22 knots. It was also a great victory for the turbine engines over the Delaware's reciprocating engines, as well as a triumph for the Curtis type.

The record of 22.25 knots was achieved while the ship was running with the current and makes no allowance for tidal corrections. The average of the five top-speed runs, both with and against the tide and both corrections had been made by the board of inspection and survey, was 21.833.

The Delaware's average for five high speed runs under similar conditions was only 21.44. More wonderful than all else was the tremendous amount of horse power developed, the maximum being in excess of 35,000, and the average for the five high-speed runs being 33,875.

The maximum horse power developed by the Delaware on standardization was about 30,000. The maximum number of revolutions made by the North Dakota today was 256 per minute. It was estimated that contract speed of 21 knots would be made with the propellers turning at 260, and it will be on this basis that the mighty ship will start away bright and early tomorrow morning.

After two days of postponement on account of thick weather the builders found conditions letter-perfect this morning. Two warming up runs were made, and at 8.15 she crossed the line on what was destined to be the fastest mile ever made by a ship of this type. When the cards presented figures that represented a mile at 22.25 knots an hour there was a moment of rejoicing and congratulations and then the trial was resumed.

The next mile was against the tide and was at the rate of 21.486. The remainder of the top-speed runs were made in the following order: 22.13, 21.625 and 22.138. After that, to obtain standardization data, there were three runs each at 20 1/2 knots, 17 1/2 knots, 12 knots and 10 knots.

Automatic Sprinklers Proved Their Value

By having automatic sprinklers and alarms in its plant the United States Robbin and Shuttle company, at the corner of Rogers and Perry streets, was saved from a serious fire this morning.

Fire broke out from some unknown cause on the top floor of the three story brick building occupied by the company, about 1.30 o'clock. The ringing of the automatic alarm attracted the attention of Officer Wesley Wilson, who rang in an alarm from box 133. By the time the regular alarm had been sent in the High Street Engine company had arrived on the scene. When the firemen entered the building they found the sprinklers working beautifully and the fire extinguished. All that remained for the firemen to do was to clean up the place. The damage was slight and principally by water. The alarm rang out at 2 o'clock.

The building and contents were insured by Fred C. Church.

Died at His Home in Washington

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—General John J. Coppinger died last night at 10.30 o'clock, at his residence in this city, of pneumonia.

General Coppinger was the oldest son of William Coppinger, County Cork, Ireland, where he was born, October 11, 1834. At an early age he received a commission in one of the Yeomanry regiments then raised in England for service in the Crimea, but was mustered out at the close of hostilities without seeing any active service.

He then received a commission in one of the Papal regiments and served during the campaign of 1860. He was prisoner at the defence of the La Rocca Gate, and was made a Knight of St. Gregory for his services.

On his release he was invalided home and at the outbreak of the Civil war received a commission in the United States regular army on the recommendation of Archbishop Hughes. He was made captain of the then Fourteenth Infantry, September 30, 1861. He served with gallantry during the war, was severely wounded at the second battle of Bull Run and was made colonel of the Fifteenth New York cavalry, January 27, 1865.

After the war he served mainly on the frontier. He was major general of volunteers in July 1898, and commanded the Fourth corps. He was retired for age, on October 11, 1898. General Coppinger married Alice Blaine, eldest daughter of the late James G. Blaine in February, 1882. Mrs. Coppinger died in 1890, leaving two sons, Blaine and Connor Coppinger, who survive. He has been for years one of the governors of the Metropolitan club, to which office he was re-elected but a few days before his death.

The board inspected the dining room and other rooms where changes and improvements are intended. Mr. James Dow, inspector of lands and buildings, was on the scene and told what was needed and what it would cost. The changes in the dining room were ordered by the state board of charities.

It was after five o'clock when the chairman, Mrs. Henry L. Tibbells, called to order. Clerk Howe read the records of the last meeting and the same were approved. Commissioners Drapreau and Hindle reported for committees on minor matters, the board voted the chair authority to approve all bills and the meeting adjourned. Park Board Met

CAPETOWN, Nov. 5.—A quantity of charred wreckage, including bits of the deckhouse, have been washed ashore near Port Alfred on the south-east coast of Cape Colony. There are some indications that the wreckage is from the British steamer Waratah which with five hundred passengers and a cargo of metal and wool has never been heard from since she sailed from Port Natal on July 26 for London.

In the testimony of the young woman's mistress, Mrs. Von Jaggerman, who testified that "the night the young woman disappeared she saw her on the street near the house talking with two men, both of them short and thick set. Both the defendants answer such a description. Another witness today was Daniel Murphy who discovered the body and who said that he noticed many footprints in the vicinity and that in addition to those of the woman's boots there were others, showing that two men were with her. When the clothing found on the body was displayed in court Delorey appeared nervous but his companion remained very cool.

THE REPUBLICANS

Won Out in Nebraska
Election

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 5.—The Bee today says:
Seventy Nebraska counties complete, with incomplete returns from some of the remaining counties, indicate the republican judicial ticket will be elected and not one candidate will be defeated. The total received gives a plurality for Judge Fawcett, low man for the republicans over Sullivan, high man for the democrats of 1900. The remaining counties basing the estimate on the vote two years ago and making a most liberal allowance for democratic gains will not reduce the republican majority more than 1000.

DRASTIC ACTION

In the Stetson Case is Expected.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Prominent members of the first church of Christ, scientist, which exonerated Mrs. Stetson of the charges of mental malpractice made against her by the mother church in Boston, were predicting today that the action of the New York church would by no means end the controversy engendered by the Stetson charges. It was pointed out that never before in the history of the church founded by Mrs. Eddy had a church body of the denomination attempted to review action taken by the mother church in Boston and the partisans of Virgil O. Strickeler, Mrs. Stetson's successor as first reader of the church here declared today that some drastic action in regard to the Stetson case might be looked for from the Boston stronghold.

ATTORNEY PRATT

Asks for Release of Two
Chinamen

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—In his plea for the release and pardon of Wary Charles and Joe Guay, the two remaining Chinamen to be electrocuted for the murder in the tong war of two years ago, Attorney Harvey Pratt asked the pardon committee of the governor's council today to review the evidence in the trial and set aside the verdict because of Charles' public services and because neither of the defendants had any knowledge of the murders.
Mr. Pratt admitted that he had very little evidence to support the claim of ignorance of Charles and Guay regarding the shooting. He laid much stress upon the work of Charles as a court interpreter and as an assistant to a Chinese smuggler. It was this latter act which brought down upon him the enmity of the members of the opposing tong.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 5.—While C. L. Warriner, the deposed treasurer of the Big Four R. R. Co. in this city remains under surveillance of the company's detective, no warrant of arrest has been issued nor has any authoritative statement been issued here as to the amount of money involved in the alleged shortage of the funds of which Warriner had charge.

The alleged shortage, it was reported today has grown until it is now placed at from $150,000 to $175,000. It is also stated that at least three persons are being sought in connection with the blackmailing of the former treasurer, he having mailed them as among those who levied tribute upon him and when he paid from the company's funds.

J. E. Willett Proved That Var-ne-sis Cured Rheumatism

J. E. WILLETT,
37 West Fifth St., Lowell

Write to Him, or Call

Mr. J. E. Willett's Testimony

After 20 years of rheumatic pain and suffering, Mr. Willett, a well known Lowell blacksmith and member of the Foresters, found permanent cure. Nearly a year ago he made the following declaration and today repeats every word:
Lowell, Mass., June 9, 1908.
Dear Sir:—For 20 years I suffered with rheumatism in my shoulders and hands. It gradually worked down, until it settled in my knees and feet. I was obliged to walk flat-footed, not being able to bend my knees in the least.
When I first got up in the morning it was almost impossible to get about. Some mornings I had to actually crawl about until I got limbered up. My joints were so sore and stiff. In order to dress I had to hold on to the side of the bed, as I could not bear my weight on my feet. In going down stairs I had to hold on to the banisters, and walk down one step at a time. I tried every kind of rheumatic cure I heard of but they did not cure me and I finally gave up hope of ever getting rid of rheumatism in my feet and knees.
Officer John Buchanan, an old friend of mine, recommended Var-ne-sis Blood Purifier to me, and told me what it had done for him. I am mighty glad I listened to him and tried it for it has absolutely cured me. My knees and feet are as limber as can be and I know what it is to walk with comfort again. I am out in all kinds of weather, but have never had a return of rheumatism since being cured.
I am sincerely yours,
J. E. WILLETT,

Lowell will lose 10 delegates in all republican conventions next year as the result of the local vote for governor in this city last Tuesday.

The comparative presentation of Lowell wards in the republican state convention this year and next is as follows:

PEOPLE OF NOTE

The class poet of Brown university's senior class comes from Jamaica, in the West Indies.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Dr. Wilfred Thomason Grenfell to Miss Anne Elizabeth MacClanahan of Chicago, at Grace Episcopal church, Chicago, on Nov. 18 at 8 p. m.

The fund which the Scottish people of Boston have been raising to erect a statue of Robert Burns has been increased by a donation of $100 from Harry Lauder, the Scotch comedian. Hugh Cairns, the sculptor, was commissioned by Lauder to make him a bronze replica of the statue, which is the best one of Burns that he has seen. He wishes to place it in his home in Scotland.

Mrs. A. D. Winship of Racine, Wis., although nearing her seventy-ninth birthday, has entered Ohio State university for the regular collegiate course. For the last two years she attended summer school at the university, taking special studies. She will study psychology and literature, especially. She says that she has planned a course of study that will keep her occupied until she reaches her ninetyeth birthday.

A bureau of graduate appointments has recently been formed at Brown university by President Faunce, consisting of Professors J. Q. Dealey, J. A. Brooks, William Kirk and P. P. Gorham. For years a teachers' bureau has existed at Brown, and in recent years much has been done by the engineering professors to secure positions for graduates in the various engineering fields. The object of the new bureau is to assist all alumni throughout the country in their careers. Professor William Kirk is secretary of the bureau.

A mark of distinction recently has been bestowed upon Dr. Marshall L. Perrin of Wellesley, in his election to membership in the Author's club, one of London's most eminent literary and academic societies. The late George Meredith was president of this club, and his successor is the poet laureate of England. Among present members are Maarten Martens, Anthony Hope, Lord Tennyson, Foully Bigelow, Hall Caine, Conan Doyle, Sir Algernon Ross and Professor Skeat. The election of Dr. Perrin is due to his work along the lines of Anglo-Saxon and early English, as well as to his international reputation in educational and literary circles.

All Paris is deeply interested in the marriage of Claude Casimir-Perier, son of the late president of France, M. Casimir-Perier, to Mme. Simone Benda, one of the leading actresses of the French stage. She formerly was the wife of M. La Barge, the comedian and conservative teacher of acting, who discovered the talent of his wife and developed it fully. She is of an excellent family, the members of which, with their friends, were shocked at her adoption of the stage. Two years ago the late President Casimir-Perier attempted to break off his son's interest in Mme. Benda, and more recently the young man's mother, Mme. Casimir-Perier, appealed unsuccessfully to the courts to prevent his marriage, which was consummated only after several legal disputes.

Miss Lucy F. Rider has been appointed trained nurse of the school for consumptive children which has just been opened on the ferryboat Susquehanna at the foot of Columbia street, Brooklyn. The school is run by the co-operation of various agencies. Miss Mary Harriman, eldest daughter of the late E. H. Harriman, procured the loan of the boat to the board of education, the committee on the prevention of tuberculosis provides a visiting nurse—Miss Austin—to look up the patient-pupils when they fail to come to school, the board of health sends a couple of doctors to visit the school three times each week, the board of education supplies the teacher, the trained nurse in charge and the school furnishings while the Red Cross expects to be able to sell enough stamps to supply the milk and eggs for the diet of the pupils.

DETROIT WOMAN

Shares an Estate in Walpole, N. H.

DETROIT, Nov. 5.—Through the efforts of City Clerk Nichols, Mrs. H. T. Kenrick of 912 4th avenue has been placed in communication with the administrators of the Kenrick estate in Walpole, N. H., with the result that her proper share in the property will be conveyed to her. It is one of those cases where a lost heir must be found before an estate can be settled up.

Wednesday a letter was received by the city clerk from C. T. Kenrick, who died in Detroit in 1894. The letter stated that the Kenrick estate was being divided and a share was due Mrs. Kenrick.

City Clerk Nichols and Deputy William Dever could find no Mrs. H. T. Kenrick in the directory. As a last resort William Dever went to the directory publishers and from a directory of 1894 learned that H. T. Kenrick lived at that time at 912 Fourth avenue.

Deputy Dever then learned that Mrs. Kenrick, aged 72, still lived there, with her daughter, also a widow. It was late when Dever arrived and the house was dark. He went next door, told a neighbor his errand and returned with her to ring the bell until Mrs. McKinney, the daughter, came to the door. The news was a complete surprise.

"My husband had many relatives in New England," said Mrs. Kenrick. "But since his death, 15 years ago, I have heard almost nothing from them. What amount I will get I do not know."

MURDER CHARGED

Two Men Are Under Arrest at Houlton, Me.

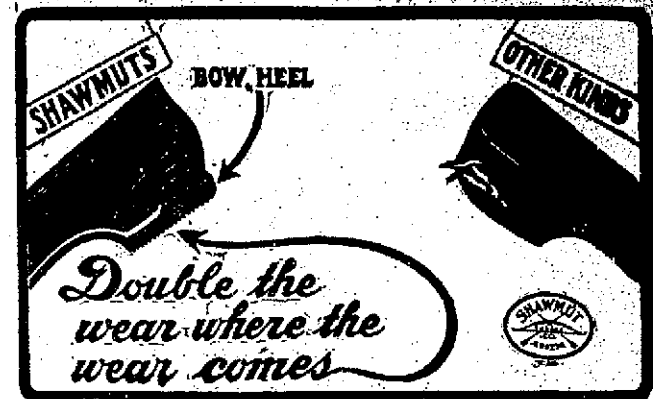

HOULTON, Me., Nov. 5.—Charles R. Friel and Ellis Black were arraigned yesterday afternoon, the warrant charging Friel with murder and Black with being an accessory in the killing of John Friel of Amity, who died Wednesday evening as a result of a wound received from a bullet fired from a rifle, as the state claims, in the hands of Charles Friel. Both prisoners pleaded not guilty.

Charles Friel, uncle of the respondent, testified to seeing Charles and John in a fight in the McIntosh house nearby on the evening in question, swearing at each other, and the witness helped to separate them. He then went home with his brother John and after they had talked awhile they heard a noise and recognized the voices of the respondents crying to John, "Come out, we are ready for you."

They went out, three shots were fired and his brother fell. The men drove away and witness helped his brother into the house. Lester Knapp, who lives on the same road, testified to being awakened during the night by a team driving in his yard. On going to the window, Charles asked him for his rifle, saying he wanted to kill John. Witness refused and respondents drove away. John McCluskey, who lives on the same road, testified to loaning

The Merrimack Says: BUY YOUR OVERCOAT NOW

We Are Doing the Largest Overcoat Business in Our History and We Advise an Early Purchase to Get the Choicest Shades

The great strength of this stock of overcoats is in the extensive variety and exceptional value of the garments at the middle prices, beginning at $15 and going up to $30. The man who is looking for service chiefly will find it in these garments at $15, $20 and $25, garments that are unmatched at these prices.

If style is the desired overcoat quality, we can show more models of high grade fancy coats—from the 46-inch box to the 52-inch auto model—than can be found in any two other stores in town.

Every garment we show at these prices is hand-tailored, can be depended on to be correct in style and dependable in workmanship, and is an exclusive style with us.

For Friday and Saturday we name two special values that are trade winners:

SILK LINED OVERCOATS $25.00

For the man who appreciates a touch of style to a plain staple overcoat, this silk lined garment with facing to the button holes is an appealing style.

The material is a black vicuna, from one of our finest makers, a half box model that fits the neck closely and drapes perfectly. It is entirely hand built, except where machine work is preferable. You get in love with it the minute you put it on and look in the glass; it's a dressy, stylish, high class coat and easily worth $5 more than we ask for it. All sizes this week.

UNMATCHABLE OVERCOATS $15.00

Sold everywhere at $20.00.

You'll probably never see the equal of these coats again, here or elsewhere, at this season's price.

These coats are made of black and blue korseys of great strength and lustrous finish. For a moderate price, kersey fabrics give more service than any other overcoating. Kersey is woven tightly together, with a smooth finish that shows wear very little.

The cut of these coats is in a sensible style, half box, avoiding extremes, and is a fashion that is always in good form. They have well shaped shoulders, snug fitting collars and hang splendidly.

The interior finish is as honest as the outside, wool serge lining, all seams sewed with silk thread, buttons on to stay; and the inside stiffening and stays are as carefully worked as the parts of the garments that meet the eye.

Sizes to fit young men and men of all shapes—regulars, shorts, longs, and stouts—from 33 to 46 inch breast, in black and blue.

ANNUAL REUNION

Of St. Patrick's Academy
Alumni, Dec. 29

The committee in charge of the coming banquet and reunion of the Alumni of St. Patrick's Boys' academy, met last evening in the school hall and organized by choosing Joseph A. O'Brien, 1900, chairman and Charles G. Griffin, '08, secretary. Practically every class since the founding of the school in 1882 is represented on this committee and from the interest and enthusiasm shown at the first meeting, there is little doubt that it will be conducted on a larger and better scale than last year's successful affair. The following members were nominated as chairmen of the different sub-committees: Music—John J. Hanlon, '03; printing—Thomas J. Mulligan, '82; speakers—Jos. A. O'Brien, '00; catering—David Hanlon, '08; decorating—John E. Golden, '04; finance—Michael E. Adams, '09, and each will have a definite report for the next meeting to be held Thursday, Nov. 18, in the school hall. An invitation is extended to every former student, whether a graduate or not, to attend this reunion on Wednesday evening, Dec. 29, and the committee suggests an early application for tickets.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

It is seldom that widely divergent critics ever agree, yet we find that William Winter, the dean of the New York reviewers, was in perfect accord with Arthur Brisbane, the most conspicuous of the younger school of extremists, when Henry Bernstein's masterpiece, "The Servant in the House," which won the pair of distinguished critics and made the play the premiere dramatic offering of many seasons in New York. When a play can arouse the enthusiastic support of two such diametrically opposed judges as Winter and Brisbane, the piece must truly possess genuine elements of artistic and popular success.

"THE SERVANT IN THE HOUSE." One of the most striking stage figures seen in recent years is Charles Dalton's forebodingly realistic Dr. Man in "The Servant in the House," which is to be presented at the Opera House next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday by Henry Miller's Associate Players. Mr. Dalton, who will be remembered as "Marcus Superbus," in

in "The Servant of the House."

"The Sign of the Cross" and as the husband in "The Thief" last season, makes of the Dr. Man, a vivid, virile, almost titanic figure. His impersonation because of its quality of glaring realism alone will live long in the memories of all who see him in this part. Seats for all performances are now on sale.

WILLIAM COLLIER COMING. Charles Frohman will present William Collier, the foremost comedian of the day, at the Opera House on Thursday, Nov. 11, in his great comedy success, "The Patriot." This play was written by Mr. Collier in collaboration with J. Hartley Manners, the English dramatist. "The Patriot" is filled to the brim with laughter, but it also tells a most interesting story and has plenty of heart interest. The scenes of the play are laid in both France, Nevada, and London. Mr. Collier is seen as an Americanized English baronet. Mr. Frohman has surrounded Mr. Collier with the largest and most capable company the popular comedian has ever had.

"THIS WOMAN AND THIS MAN." Miss Minnie Victorson has recently signed contracts to appear during the coming season in "This Woman and This Man," a new play from the pen of Avery Hopwood, the clever young author of "Clothes" and other successful pieces. "This Woman and This Man" is a highly emotional drama with a plentiful heaven of delightful comedy. The play comes to the Opera House Friday, Nov. 12.

"THE CANDY SHOP." "Meet Me Down on the Corner" an ensemble song in "The Candy Shop" is said to win encores until the players are forced to ask the audience to desist. William Rock and Maud Fulton who introduce this number appear as a smart city youth and his "steady." The girls and youths of the chorus of the company are a picturesque background for this feature. This new sensation gallery will be seen here soon.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

If you want a good brisk, snappy show throughout, go to Hathaway's theatre, this week. There's nothing approaching dulness on the bill, and of variety there's a profusion. George Ade's clever comedy, "The Mayor and the Manicure" is headlined. It is a semi-political play, with a good slice of fun to it.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Esmonde in the emotional sketch "The Soldier of Propriety" get under the skin a bit. Other acts on the bill are: Sammy Burns and Alice Fulton in a finished dancing act; McIntyre and Groves, right up-to-the-minute conversationists; Josephine Joy, with a sweet voice and a pretty face; the Alpha troupe of premier hoop rollers; and Luce & Luce, novelty musicians. The moving pictures are all new.

Performances will be given every afternoon and evening during the remainder of the week, with special seats at the matinees for the women.

THEATRE VOYONS

The Theatre Voyons offers today a picture that appeals alike to the lovers of sport, to the lovers of beauty and to the lovers of the unusual. It is a special picture of Miss Annett Kellerman, the world's greatest woman swimmer and the highest salaried vaudeville artist of her sex. There is no doubt that she is the most graceful diver ever seen and her trick and fancy diving is performed with a sureness and skill that cause the most expert to sit up and take notice. There are several other pictures on the bill notably "The Gibson Goddess," a very funny comedy, "A Trip Through Ceylon," a beautiful scenic picture and "A Bachelor's Reformation," a fine dramatic subject.

Bring your Hallet & Davis "Book-Name" Contest certificate to RING'S, 110 Merrimack St., and get full credit for it towards the purchase of a piano.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

At the Academy of Music, the program is changed on Monday and Thursday of each week, and nothing is allowed to get old at this popular place of amusement. Everything is new and up-to-date and carefully selected. At each performance will be seen the Melrose Bros., novelty acrobats, who present some very difficult feats of juggling. Ernest Dupille, is very entertaining in monologue and character songs. The biograph feature "The Gibson Goddess" is entirely different from the usual run of work done by this excellent stock company.

The many friends of Mr. David A. McHugh, the well known letter carrier, will be pained to learn that he is seriously ill at St. John's hospital.

MADAME STEINHEIL

Made a Passionate Appeal to the Jury Today

PARIS, Nov. 5.—The Steinheil case was again the center of intense interest today. Contrary to expectation Madame Steinheil again took the stand, it having been decided to resume the direct interrogatory addressed to her yesterday. She plainly showed the effects of the trying ordeal she had passed through during the last two days. Great black rings were distinguishable under her eyes and her face was almost colorless. Nevertheless she rose to her feet when the inquiry began and responded bravely to the examination.

The presiding judge, M. DeVales showed solicitation at the outset lest the strain of previous days had taxed the witness' strength too severely. But he was quickly reassured by Madame Steinheil, who said: "No, I am not at all fatigued."

In opening the proceeding Judge De Vales dealt with the appearance of Rene Collard, an actor, who caused a momentary sensation by asserting that he was the real assassin. Judge De Vales disposed of this incident as pure invention.

"It is nothing more than a joke," said the court. "The inquiry has established that this was a crack brained youth whose parents have stated that he followed the case passionately and had previously attempted to intervene with anonymous letters addressed to the examining magistrate." Judge De Vales then turned his attention to Madame Steinheil. He confronted her with various conflicting statements she had previously made regarding the occurrences on the night of the crime. He also questioned her closely on the involved financial condition of the Steinheil household at the time of the murders.

Madame Steinheil's composure gradually gave way before the succession of sharp interrogatories. Her feeling at last found expression in an agonized flood of words in which she appealed to the jury to believe in her innocence, complaining bitterly that in the hour of

Novel Experiment by Which It May be Made to Disappear

A peculiar feature about posam, the new skin discovery, is that no one is asked to buy it without first sending to the Emergency Laboratories No. 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City, for an experimental sample and applying same to an affected part of the skin, about the size of a silver dollar. It will clear the spot so treated in twenty-four hours—a remarkable visual demonstration of its power.

While posam has been mentioned principally in connection with the cure of eczema, the most stubborn of skin diseases, it must be remembered that when used for itch, hives, pimples, blotches, acne, itching feet, scaly scalp, chaffing of infants and similar minor skin troubles its action is all the more pronounced, results being seen after an overnight application. As only a small quantity of posam is necessary to cure such cases, a special fifty-cent package, usually sufficient, has been placed on sale at Falls & Burkinshaw's, Carter & Shorburn's and other leading drug stores in Lowell and throughout the country.

her misfortune she had been deserted by high political friends, asserting also that a society woman who had frequented her home had now deserted her.

Notwithstanding this passionate appeal, Judge DeVales pursued his interrogatories, relentlessly. When he pinned her down with proof that she had concealed jewels which she afterwards had stolen she turned her back on him and with crossed arms and flashing eyes admitted that she had done so, justifying her action by the motherly instinct of shielding her daughter from the knowledge that these jewels had come from her lover.

The prisoner indignantly declared that her sensational attempt to revive the case last fall by an accusation against young Wolf, the son of the cook in the Steinheil household, was at the instance of her lover, Maurice Borderel, the merchant whom it was supposed she desired to marry, and in an effort to clear herself.

"Borderel had passed out of my life," said Madame Steinheil, "and I had no thought of him. My sole solicitude was to save my daughter's engagement to Pierre Buisson."

In an interview today Borderel reaffirmed his faith in the innocence of Madame Steinheil, saying that she knew that marriage with him would be impossible and therefore that the alleged motive for the murder of her husband was untenable.

"She did not revive the case on my account, for she knew the woman that I had loved was not the woman whose intrigues with Faure, Chouanard, Balmour and so many others have been exposed."

The judge continued doggedly to force the prisoner to retract step by step her actions during the feverish months following the crime, confronting her at every turn with some new story which she had told or compelling her to explain over and over again why she had accused wrongly Burkinshaw, the American newspaperman, Couillard, the servant, and young Wolf. Upon each occasion Madame Steinheil found refuge behind the plea that in her frenzied desire to clear herself from the awful imputation that she had murdered her husband and mother she had acted upon any suggestion that came into her head. Judge De Vales was particularly severe in his cross examination as to the lack of feeling displayed by the prisoner at her mother's funeral.

At one time when Madame Steinheil declared that Couillard had lied the judge interrupted sharply with the exclamation: "But you also lied?" At this M. Aubin sprang to his feet and protested against the remark of the court. Judge De Vales retorted: "I am justified in saying that the accused has never ceased to lie concerning this affair. Her stories are tissues of lies."

Late in the afternoon the proceedings were suspended for a short time. When they resumed Madame Steinheil had a brief respite, her examination being suspended while the first deposition of witnesses was read. This introduced a description of the condition of the house following the crime.

Although today's session of the court did not begin until 12:20 p. m. the ordeal was so severe that before the afternoon had passed it had been necessary to interrupt the proceedings several times in order that the accused woman might be given a syrup of ether to quiet her agitation.

PRESIDENT TAFT

Paid a Tribute to United States Army and Navy

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 5.—President Taft up until nearly three o'clock this morning as a result of the banquet served in his honor last night at the De Soto hotel, slept late today and delayed the start of the program of sight-seeing arranged for his last day in Savannah by nearly an hour. After breakfast at the Gordon home this morning, the president boarded the revenue cutter Yamacraw for an hour's sail on the river. The river trip ended, the president was taken for a fast ride over the beautiful auto course over which the Grand Prize races were run last fall. On the way back to the station to take the train for Charleston, the president passed before all the school children of the city, both white and colored. President Taft is the fifth president of the United States to visit Savannah during his term of office; Washington, Monroe, Cleveland, McKinley preceded Mr. Taft and Gen. Grant came to the city shortly before he had laid down the reins of government.

Mr. Taft made a very happy speech at the banquet early this morning. He was the last speaker on the long program. The president made a hit by referring to "Ty" Cobb, the famous batsman of the Detroit baseball team as one of the distinguished citizens of Georgia. He paid a tribute to the United States army and navy and agreed with Rear-Admiral Sperry, who had responded to a toast of the navy, that there was no act in the wonderful, useful and inspiring administration of Theodore Roosevelt to which we are more indebted than the sending of the sixteen battleships around the world.

Referring to the canal the president repeated his promise that it will be completed by Jan. 15, 1915. The president said it took a strong man to supervise the work as secretary of war so he chose a southerner. Judge Dickinson, a man of wonderful ingenuity and a "sterner of the breaches."

CRUSHED TO DEATH

Young Man Caught Between Elevator and Floor

Athanasios J. Charissis, otherwise called "Arthur George," aged 28, was crushed to death in an elevator accident at the Lowell Rendering Works at South Lowell.

It is believed that he was caught between the elevator and the floor of an upper story as he was about to step from the elevator to a room while the elevator was in motion. He was not quick enough and was jammed in between the floor and the elevator.

Charissis was alone at the time and hence the exact cause of the accident can not be determined. The ambulance was summoned and Charissis was taken in an unconscious condition to St. John's hospital.

A quick examination showed that he could not possibly live. He had a fracture at the base of the skull, a dislocated shoulder, broken collar bone and several fractured ribs. The fracture at the base of the skull was enough to cause death, but one rib had punctured a lung, and he could breathe only with difficulty.

He died within an hour. Medical Examiner Meigs examined the body. An inquest may be held shortly as to the exact cause of the affair.

Charissis had been in this country a short time, and has a wife and family in Greece. A cousin is the only immediate relative in this country. The body was removed to the rooms of Undertakers C. H. Molloy & Sons.

ROBBED OF $14,156

Cashier of Canadian Express Co. Attacked by Unknown Men

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Nov. 5.—William Dobson, cashier of the Canadian Express company here, was sandwiched yesterday afternoon in the company's office at the Grand Trunk station in Bridge street and a package containing $14,156 was taken from him by two unknown men. The robbery was committed in broad daylight with a score of station employees within 20 feet of the office. Dobson was alone at the time, the other men in the office having gone to meet a train. The two men entered and one asked if a trunk had arrived for him. As Dobson stooped over to get his "on hand" book, one of the men reached over the counter and hit him behind the ear with a sandbag or a piece of iron. Five minutes later Dobson was found lying unconscious on the floor in a pool of blood by R. B. Brown, the local agent.

He did not recover consciousness for about an hour and was then unable to give a good description of the two men.

It is evident that the robbery had been carefully planned and the habits of the station employees had been closely studied. All the men working near Cashier Dobson had something to do upon the arrival or departure of a train which called them out on the station platform. The attack was made just as a train thundered into the little station and the employees were walking out to meet it. This not only drowned the sound of a possible outcry by the cashier, but gave the robbers a few minutes in which to get away before the return of the others.

The money was in five consignments from the Imperial bank branches in this city and at St. David's, Ontario, and was bound for Toronto and Buffalo banks. Dobson was just about to put the packages in a sack and place it on Grand Trunk train No. 25 when the robbery occurred.

RADIANT HAIR

New York Society Women's Hair Matched Only by Parisians

While much attention is given to choicest gowns by New York society women, the turbulent fad just now is the care of the hair.

For many years the clever women of Paris have been famed for the magnificent beauty of their hair.

"Glorious hair," a Virginian calls it; "so radiant and lustrous that it not only attracts but fascinates, and compels unstinted admiration."

But now the elite of New York, ever anxious to improve their beauty, have learned that Parisian Sage, a remarkable and almost marvelous hair nourisher and beautifier, is almost entirely responsible for the charming hair of the ladies of France. The demand for it has become enormous.

Philadelphia chemist who analyzed Parisian Sage said: "It is the ideal dressing for the hair. The ingredients are so scientifically combined that Parisian Sage is first of all a hair grower, because it surely destroys dandruff germs, and nourishes the hair roots."

"Second, it puts life, substance and brilliancy into the hair, which improves the attractiveness of the hair."

"Third, it is very delicately scented; is not a particle sticky or greasy, and does not contain one atom of anything that could possibly injure scalp or hair."

Parisian Sage is now sold all over America by progressive druggists, and in Lowell by Carter & Sherburne who are glad to guarantee it to eradicate dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

It is the finest dressing for children's hair that money can buy, and best of all, the price puts it where every family can afford to use it. A large, generous bottle for 50 cents. Made in America by C. B. Coburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., who fill mail orders, charges prepaid, on receipt of 50 cents. The gift with the Auburn hair is on every package.

STORMY MEETING JOE THOMAS WON

Mrs. Stetson Exonerated of Charges

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Mrs. Augusta E. Stetson, formerly head reader of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in this city, was exonerated yesterday of charges of "mental malpractice" in the report of a special board of inquiry, presented to a congregation of 2000 persons at a long and stormy meeting in the big white stone church on Central Park West. The exonerated of Mrs. Stetson was endorsed by the members of the church, but a portion of the board's report which concerned Virgil Strickler, her successor as first reader, who had appeared in Boston as a witness against Mrs. Stetson, was referred back to the board of inquiry for further consideration.

The congregation, all members of which underwent close scrutiny before being admitted, began the consideration of the case at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The session lasted six hours, and it was only after a heated debate and various parliamentary interruptions that the congregation voted its endorsement by a close margin of the report in Mrs. Stetson's favor.

Twenty-eight charges had been made against Mrs. Stetson at the instance of the board of directors of the mother church in Boston. Thereupon, the inquiry was ordered by the trustees of the New York church at the request of Mrs. Stetson, who meanwhile was deposed from her position as authorized reader.

Among the charges the most important were, in effect, that Mrs. Stetson's teachings tended to disloyalty to Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, founder and leader of the sect, and that Mrs. Stetson was guilty of mental malpractice in bringing Christian Science to bear upon people who did not welcome "by hypnosis, and similar methods."

The report of the board of inquiry which followed four weeks' examination of witnesses, the taking of 1000 pages of testimony and 35 sittings of the board, was a complete exonerated of Mrs. Stetson, and a declaration of loyalty of the New York church to the mother church in Boston.

The report says: "These false reports were engineered and developed by malicious anti-magnetism, which is the opposite and opponent of Christian Science, and they were circulated by persons who did not properly protect themselves against aggressive mental suggestion as enjoined by our beloved leader."

OLD LADIES' HOME
The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Old Ladies' Home was held yesterday. It was also the annual meeting for the election of officers and committees. Mrs. George F. Richardson was re-elected chairman, and Mrs. Samuel Young was re-elected secretary. All of last year's committees were re-elected.

Defeated Jack Fitzgerald in Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—Joe Thomas of San Francisco had the better of Jack Fitzgerald of West Philadelphia in the windup at the Broadway A. C. last night. Fitzgerald had the advantage in weight, but he failed to land as clean blows. Thomas fought a classy fight in the earlier rounds, but slumped up in the last two rounds, in which the West Philadelphia boy did some good fighting in the clinches. The bout was one of the slowest at this club for some time. The only round in which there was much action was the fourth.

NEW METHOD OF TREATING DANDRUFF

There has been a mistaken idea for years that frequent washing is bad for the hair. The result is that nearly everybody has more or less hair trouble. Practically everybody has dandruff, and hundreds of others have hair that is too oily, or too dry, or hair that is faded and lifeless. The result of all these troubles is falling hair, and after that comes baldness. There are hundreds of humbugs sold under various names that are said to make beautiful hair, and that are said to cure dandruff, but they are worse than useless. Common soaps and common shampoos leave the hair in a worse condition than it was before. There is one preparation for the hair that is so good that the ingredients of which it is made are printed on the package. This is the new scientific preparation called Birt's Head Wash, which is made of Refined Soap, Cocoon Cocaine Oil, White of Eggs, Glycerine and Salicylic Acid. Any doctor will tell you it is a good formula. It removes the dirt, dandruff and microbes from the hair and leaves the scalp soft and moist and the hair fine and glossy. Price, 50 cents a jar.

SENT TO STATE FARM

Thomas Carroll, who was released from the state farm at Bridgewater yesterday morning, was arrested shortly after midnight last night and this afternoon was taken back to Bridgewater.

Carroll after arriving in Lowell yesterday started to celebrate his release and as a result he got intoxicated and while in that condition opened a window in Coleman's boarding-house in Webster street and entered the house. Mr. Coleman heard the racket and arising found Carroll in the room. He caught the intruder and sent for a police officer. Patrolman Sheridan went to the house and took charge of Carroll.

This morning in court the only complaint entered against the man was that of drunkenness. He entered a plea of not guilty but was found guilty and returned to the state farm.

WOMAN ELECTED
TO FILL THE OFFICE OF COUNTY
TREASURER

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 5.—Miss Gertrude Jordan, 25 years old, was elected treasurer of Cherry county last night. Until lately she had been a deputy in the office. She is a republican. The county attorney questioned whether a woman was eligible and to settle the dispute the matter was referred to Attorney General Thompson who yesterday declared there was nothing in the constitution to prevent Miss Jordan assuming office.

LITTLE SUFFERER
FROM ECZEMA

Grew Worse in Spite of Six Months of Ablest Treatment—Sleep Terribly Broken—Face, Head and Hands Masses of Dreadful Humor.

A SINGLE SET OF
CUTICURA CURED HIM

"I feel it my duty to let you know with what success I have used the Cuticura Remedies. When our baby was seven weeks old he broke out with what we called eczema. It was a terrible thing. He was so uncomfortable that he would not sleep. We called in a doctor. He said it was eczema and from that time we doctored six months with three of the best doctors in Alton, but he only got worse. His face, head and hands were a solid sore. There was no end to the suffering for him. We had to tie his little hands to keep him from scratching. He never knew what it was to sleep well from the time he took the disease until he was cured. He kept us awake all hours in the night and his health wasn't what you would call good. We tried everything but the right thing. Finally I got a set of the Cuticura Remedies and am pleased to say we did not use all of them until he was cured. We have waited seven months to see if it would return but it never has and today his skin is clear and fair as it possibly could be. I hope Cuticura may save some one else's little one suffering and also their pocket-books. John Leason, 1403 Archison St., Alton, Ill., Nov. 3 and 17, 1908."

OPENING DEALINGS
IN THE STOCK MARKET WERE
LIGHT TODAY

Dealings in Specialties Overshadowed Operations in Standard Railroad Stocks—Pittsburg Coal Extended Its Rise to Two Points

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Opening dealings in stocks were light and the movement of prices narrow and irregular. Pacific Mail and American Cotton Oil rose 5 and Am. Sugar fell a point. Otherwise the changes were limited to small fractions.

Dealings in the industrial and specialties overshadowed the operations in the standard railroad stocks. There was a brisk demand for a time for Reading, U. P. and Southern Pacific. Southern advanced 3 points. American Hide & Leather pf. 2 1/2. Am. Cotton Oil 2. Reading, U. P. and West. House Electric 1 1/2 and several other stocks a point or more.

The rise carried U. P. up 2 1/2 and Reading 2 points and there were advances in special specialties later. The general list became irregular. Kansas City Southern rose 1 1/2. Mo. Pac. 1 1/2 and St. Paul, Wabash pf., Western Maryland and International Harvester 1. Penn. declined 1 and American Ex. 3. The tone was steady at noon.

Bonds were firm.

Some of the important stocks moved a little higher and then the whole list sold off slightly. Pittsburg Coal extended its rise to 2 points.

Equipment stocks were ignored and the railroad leaders went higher. U. P. was the leading feature advancing 3 points. The Illinois Central was also strong and the grain carriers generally moved up. Reading 2d pf. gained 2 and Great Northern pf., Northern Pac. and Great Northern 1 and American Ex. declined a point.

The market closed weak. Southern Pacific was carried up 2. St. Paul, 1 1/2. New York Central 1. Prices then ran off before a movement to realize profits.

Boston Copper Market
BOSTON, Nov. 5.—Interest in local copper stocks continued today with prices advanced and advancing prices. At noon the market was strong with Lasalle the feature.

Boston Clearing House
BOSTON, Nov. 5.—Clearing house statement: Exchanges, $43,285,337; balances, $2,251,123.

The Money Market
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Noon. Money on call steady at 4 per cent. Prime mercantile paper 5 to 5 1/2 per cent. Commercial paper 4 to 4 1/2 per cent. Treasury notes 4 to 4 1/2 per cent. Bonds, $401,343,000; balances, $12,147,536.

Prime mercantile paper 5 to 5 1/2 per cent. Sterling exchange strong at 25.00. U. S. government bonds, 4 1/2 to 4 3/4 per cent. for sixty days bills and at 47 1/2 for demand. Commercial bills, 43 1/2 and 43 3/4. Bar silver, 50 1/2. Mexican dollars, 43. Government bonds steady. Railroad bonds irregular.

Money on call firm 3 1/2 and 4 per cent. Running rate 3 1/2. Last loan, 3 1/2. Time loans, firm; sixty days, 4 1/2 and 4 3/4 per cent. and 90 days, 4 1/2 per cent. Six months 4 1/2 and 4 3/4 per cent.

Steel common was among the rallyers of yesterday and the report of the placing of this stock upon the market of Paris next week was believed to have assisted the stock to maintain the parity which has signified the selling of it for the past month. Considerable talk was heard in the market today relative to the proposed increase in the rates of the banks of England and Germany. It was hinted that an agreement of a different nature than the one presented to the officials of the financing bank of Germany is being framed by the English and will be given by the German directors next week. The increase of rates of the banks, it is believed, will rise to a 6 per cent. discount before a long time.

All the railroad plants of the country are working over their regular schedules and the books are containing orders which will keep the plants in continuous operation for the next several months.

COTTON MARKET

MORE EXCITEMENT AT THE OPENING THIS MORNING

Big Southern Bulls Had Tremendous Buying Orders Around the Ring—January Cotton Jumped 24 Points—Liquidation Seemed to be Less Urgent

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—There was a renewal of yesterday's excitement and activity at the opening of the cotton market this morning with enormous liquidation following the big margin calls sent out after yesterday's break. The market was settled on a high note and the bulls were in the bull campaign. The big southern bulls, however, had tremendous buying orders around the ring and early fluctuations were the most erratic of the season.

After selling at 14.42 or 15 points net lower and 3.40 a bale below the high of yesterday, January cotton closed 24 points with sales in some instances of fully 7 points apart. There was further irregularity but liquidation seemed to be less urgent during the middle of the forenoon and prices ruled generally steadier, some 6 to 10 points over the closing figures of last night. The market was settled on a high note and the bulls were in the bull campaign. The big southern bulls, however, had tremendous buying orders around the ring and early fluctuations were the most erratic of the season.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Cotton spot closed quiet, 25 points lower. Mid. Upl. 14.00; Mid. Gult, 14.25. Sales 600 bales.

Steel common continued to soar this afternoon and some spirited sales and lively rallies of the stock ensued. The rumored placing of this stock upon the market next week has instilled new life into the traders, about the prospects of it, and the general buying today seemed to favor its holdings and the wonderful breach taken on today can be taken as a criterion on the report given out from the market of Paris yesterday morning.

An important announcement that is expected to be made by the management of the United States Smelting company is supposed to have been the foundation for the strength that this stock displayed in the market today. The officials, however, refused to comment upon the validity of this report but it is believed from reliable quarters that an advance in the dividend of the company may be expected. The rate of the company at this time is 4 per cent. which has a relative value of $2 to a share. The continued increasing output of the company is such that the common stock is also considered in the advancement. The common stock is now bringing the company 16 per cent. but during this year the net earnings have run as high as 20 per cent. If one may assume that the common stock will reach a net profit of 20 per cent. for the one month remaining of this year the rise in the common stock will be conservative.

The statement of the copper producers is the object of considerable comment. It will be published by the association on Nov. 10 and some of the largest dealers and handlers of the metal claim that the statement will favor the copper outlook on the whole and they have no reason to expect a change. It is understood that the statement will show a decrease in stocks. The present consumption of this metal is tabulated at 600,000 pounds per month and the deliveries during the past month are believed to have upheld that amount.

From the activity which was shown today by Union Pacific it was the general belief of the traders that this stock was en route for the tank of 25 which it was predicted it would reach this month.

COOK'S RECORDS

To be Examined by Professors

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 5.—The feeling among the professors of the University of Copenhagen who are directly concerned in the prospective examination of the North pole records of Dr. Cook today is distinctly against agreeing to the proposal of the National Geographic society that a committee of Americans be present at the examination. Rector Torp had a conference on the subject today with Prof. Stromgren, the astronomer and Dr. C. F. Pechule of the meteorological, both of whom have been designated to investigate Cook's records. Prof. Stromgren warmly resented the suggestion and declares that he was absolutely opposed to others than representatives of the university having anything to do with the first examination. Rector Torp, however, decided to submit the proposal to the consistory of the university and that body has been summoned to meet tomorrow and settle the matter. It is anticipated that the majority of the consistory will prove no more favorable to the present proposition than it did to the earlier suggestion that the university waive its claim to prior examination in favor of the United States.

COOK DENIES STORY
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Dr. Frederick Cook today denied a story emanating from Copenhagen to the effect that the Danish government had despatched a Greenland missionary to the Polar regions to verify the story of Dr. Cook's discovery by personal questioning of the two Eskimos who accompanied him.

"And the Danish government take such a step," said Dr. Cook's secretary, "Dr. Cook would have been informed of it."

THE LIBERALS WON

British House of Commons
Passed Budget 379 to 149

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The house of commons last night passed the third reading of the finance bill by a vote of 379 to 149.

The nationalists abstained from voting. The unionists had hoped that the nationalists would join them in opposition to the budget.

The scene was a memorable one. Seddon had there been a larger attendance of members and peers, and the diplomatic galleries were crowded to their utmost capacity. Chancellor Lloyd-George, Premier Asquith and Mr. Balfour, leader of the opposition, all spoke during the evening and tense excitement prevailed throughout. All present appeared to be imbued with the historic character of the occasion.

Mr. Asquith, in a brief speech closing the debate, said that it was incumbent upon those who objected to the government's taxes to provide some alternative scheme to meet the nation's necessities. Where was this scheme? he asked. Sooner or later Mr. Balfour must show his hand, and it would have to be a hand that would suit the game of the tariff reformers.

The government, continued the premier, might well be content to rest in patience. There were only two issues before the house—the taxes proposed by the budget or tariff reform.

Division was then taken and the announcement of the vote, showing that the government's majority was larger than had been expected, was greeted with prolonged ministerial cheers. The conservatives had counted upon a score of liberal abstentions, but apparently only two liberals joined the nationalists in abstaining from voting.

The bill will be formally passed on its first reading in the house of lords today. The debate on the second reading, which will determine its fate, will begin Nov. 22.

DOUBLE LYNCHING

Was Prevented By the State Guard

GASSAWAY, W. Va., Nov. 5.—Early today the authorities transferred the two negro suspects believed to have been implicated in the dastardly assault upon Mrs. George Lockhold on Wednesday to a strong refuge at Sutton, W. Va., the county seat.

Gov. Glasscock's timely arrival on the scene and the presence of the state guard had much to do with the averting of what seemed to be an inevitable double lynching last night. As late as midnight rumors were afloat about this little place that the negro suspects would never be taken alive from the town. Mounted men guarded the roads until daylight to prevent the authorities from transferring the negroes. Seeing the temper of the crowd the sheriff gave his word that the transfer would not be attempted during the night hours. The negroes were taken to Sutton at 7 a. m. and shortly afterward Gov. Glasscock left for the capital.

Mrs. George Lockhold upon whom the negroes made their terrible assault, lies today in a serious condition in Sutton. Fears are expressed for her sanity. Her husband remains here watching the result of the sheriff's attempts to preserve order and see that the law takes its course.

Details brought out at the coroner's hearing over the body of a third negro, who according to the sheriff, was one of the trio who assaulted Mrs. Lockhold and who was instantly killed when he attempted to escape capture were revolting. Such another crime has not been heard of in the state in years. The dead negro was buried in the potters' field during the night. His grave was unmarked for fear vandals might desecrate the spot.

LIQUOR HEARING

Police Board Suspends Merri- mac House License

The Charges Against P. F. Cox & Co., Heard and Dismissed— Ex-Commissioner Harris Was Heard

The board of police met in special session last night and gave a hearing to Patrick F. Cox, of the firm of P. F. Cox & Co., licensees of a saloon located at the corner of Adams and Cross streets. The charges, which were preferred by the temporary board of police, alleged that the licensees had ceased to be common victuallers inasmuch as they had violated the conditions of their license.

The testimony offered was along the same lines as that given at similar hearings held during the past few weeks and the board, after going into executive session, found the respondent not guilty and ordered the charges dismissed.

Messrs. Simon B. Harris and Winfred C. MacBrayne, accompanied by a young man who it was said was a stenographer, were present. The board objected to the latter taking notes, Commissioner Boulger stating that it appeared to him to be a reflection on the board to have another stenographer present.

Charges Sustained
While in executive session the board took action on the Merri-mac House case and suspended the license for one week. The suspension goes into effect tonight at eleven o'clock and business can be resumed at six o'clock on the morning of the 13th.

The Hearing
The Cox hearing was called to order shortly after eight o'clock. Lawyer James J. Kerwin appeared for the respondent while the prosecution was conducted by Supt. Redmond Welch. The first witness called was Patrolman George B. Palmer, who testified that he called at the saloon conducted by Mr. Cox at the corner of Adams and Cross streets on the afternoon of July 22. On that occasion he was accompanied by Patrolman David Petrie and Mr. MacBrayne. Witness found various canned goods, bread and Uneda biscuits. There were also plates and knives in evidence.

Another visit was made to the place on July 31.

At this point Commissioner Boulger noted that the young man who accompanied Mr. MacBrayne was taking

PARROT'S TALK

Led to Reconciliation of Couple

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—The screeching of a parrot in the LaSalle station last night frustrated the plans of a runaway wife and later the bird was the scene of effecting a reconciliation between the woman and her husband, Edward Zearndt. The couple were married a year ago at South Bend, Ind. Among the wedding gifts they received was the parrot. When the husband returned home from work last evening he discovered that his wife had gone, taking a satchel filled with clothes and a talkative bird. Surmising that she had left him to go back to her old residence, Zearndt hurried to the LaSalle street station. He searched through the waiting rooms but his wife was not there. Just as he was leaving the building he heard a parrot screech. The sound came from the parcel room in the main floor. Thrusting his head through an opening, his gaze fell upon the bird in its cage.

"Hello, Polly," said Zearndt; "Polly know papa?"
"Hello, pop, hello," shouted the parrot striking its beak against the cage in an attempt to escape from its prison. The husband had found the parrot, but where was his wife. He went to the Harrison street police station and asked for assistance. Detectives were put on the case by Lieut. Benfield and they decided to wait at the station for the woman near the parcel room. A Lake Shore train would leave for South Bend at 10:30 o'clock. Five minutes after the departure of the South Bend train Mrs. Zearndt came running down the steps to the waiting room. At her side was a man who carried her satchel. The parrot was handed out to her by the clerk in charge of the parcel room and as she turned her husband ran up and seized her by the arm. In the meantime the two detectives had approached her escort.

"My wife's gone to the country, hurrah, hurrah," screamed the bird. The wife, the companion, and the parrot were taken to the police station where a reconciliation soon followed.

Mrs. Zearndt denied that she was eloping but said she was leaving her husband.

ARMY OFFICERS

Anxious to Test Wright Machine

COLLEGE PARK, Md., Nov. 5.—Just how the flying qualities of the Wright machine are to be tested to their full capacity is a question receiving attention by the officers of the signal corps and is of especial interest to the army lieutenants who have become adepts in handling the machine. The lieutenants themselves have been anxious to do stunts with the biplane. The officers of the signal corps also wish to see the qualities of the machine developed to their extreme capacity. They want to know by actual experiment what the aeroplane could be called upon to do in time of war when reconnaissance to gain information of the enemy's strength would be of the highest importance. To do that it will be necessary to know what velocity of wind could be encountered with safety.

The operators would need to be trained in aerial navigation under adverse circumstances. They would not only have to possess a knowledge of methods of handling the biplane in strong currents of air but they would be obliged to obtain safety from the enemy's guns and at such altitudes there are frequently treacherous currents while a comparative calm may prevail near the ground.

If it is decided to enter upon a series of experiments to fully qualify aeroplane operators for efficient work it is now realized that a corps of highly trained men must be maintained. It will not be possible in the near future to instruct a large number of officers in aerial navigation but those who are detailed have much to learn that can be attained only by experiment. Before they can carry on such experiments with practical results they must be highly trained in handling the biplane.

REVOLUTIONISTS

Were Defeated by the Government Troops

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Nov. 4.—(Delayed in transmission)—Government troops defeated the revolutionists in a sharp engagement today, many of General Estrada's followers being wounded or killed. The government lost fifteen men, including Gen. Sutillo Chamorro. President Zelaya's forces attacked the rebel Fernos Diaz at Paso Las Lajas, capturing that point which had been defended by four hundred men. The rebels fled in the direction of Rama and were pursued.

STAR THEATRE

The third change in the motion picture program at the Star theatre was made this afternoon and was witnessed by large audiences. The sensational subjects, "The Man's Land" and "The Girl of the Big Horn Ranch" were depleted. It is a great western production from beginning to end. A big vaudeville bill will be presented next week. There will be two big acts Monday. Beginning Thursday two entirely new acts will be presented. The admission of five cents allows a seat. It is "the biggest and best show in Lowell."

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1908 was

15,956

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reldy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1909. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

INFLUENCE OF THE STAGE.

There is no mystery whatever about the stage and its influences. If it presents good plays it may convey the most forcible moral lessons; if it presents bad plays it may dispense the worst kind of moral poison. A continuous censorship is, therefore, necessary in order to keep the stage from descending to what would demoralize rather than uplift and edify.

THE THIRD DEGREE.

The play of the Third Degree, presented here a few weeks ago, exposes one of the worst evils connected with police work and incidentally shows the possibility of punishing innocent men for serious crimes. It is well that the police departments of Massachusetts must caution prisoners that anything they say when under pressure of this kind will be used against them. The Third Degree in its effort to expose yellow journalism, fails to distinguish clearly between the good and the bad.

THE SENTENCES FOR CONTEMPT.

Now that the court of appeals has confirmed the sentence of Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison for contempt of court, considerable sympathy will be felt for these three gentlemen if it appears that they must go to prison and serve sentence. They incurred the liability for contempt by misjudging the privileges which the law allowed them in the exercise of their rights. It is to be hoped that some means will be found to mitigate the severe sentence passed upon them.

President Gompers says he and his colleagues will fight to the end, which means, we presume, that they will take the case to the supreme court of the United States. So emphatic and so sweeping have been the statements made by the court of appeals in the recent decision, that there seems to be very little ground for expecting any decision much different from the higher tribunal.

THE SELF-CONSTITUTED CRITICS.

It must have occurred to every observant citizen that we have in Lowell a great many people who spend their time mainly in attending to everybody's business but their own. They are so deeply interested in what this or that citizen does, what this or that citizen has to say, or what he is doing, that they have very little time to attend to their own affairs. They constitute themselves not only public but private censors, and to speak figuratively, although themselves living in the most dimly kind of glass houses, they never cease to throw stones. They assail private citizens as well as public officials, and the man who does not conform to their peculiar standards is sure to come in for liberal abuse. The man who does not incur their censure can make up his mind that he has never done much that is worthy of praise. The class of evils that cannot be cured must evidently be endured, and so we presume it will be with the individuals mentioned so long as they find anybody to listen to their calumnies.

TRYING TO EXPLAIN RESULTS.

The republicans are trying to explain how and why it all happened; why Vahey and Foss made such a sweep in Lowell; why Purcell was elected register, and various other things shown by the results of Tuesday's election. Lowell, we are glad to say, arose to the occasion and did her full duty in protesting against the betrayal of the republican party on the tariff measure, against republican opposition to the income tax and against Governor Draper's opposition to organized labor.

It is useless for republicans to try to explain the results in Lowell by charging any committee with apathy. That is nonsense.

The people are tired of republican bossism, tired of republican extortion, and not all the republican activity that could have been aroused here could have changed the result.

In regard to the election of Mr. Purcell as register, the republicans wonder how that happened. Well, one reason was that the republican candidate did not get enough votes. It is charged, too, in certain quarters that Mr. Purcell is not the right man for the place, and the chief objection is that he is a democrat. We venture to say he will perform the duties of the office in a highly satisfactory manner and that he will never disgrace either himself or his party.

THE HOOKWORM DISEASE.

Mr. Rockefeller has donated a million dollars out of his plethoric purse for the purpose of fighting the hookworm disease in the south. It is alleged that there are nearly a million cases of this disease in the southern states due to the ravages of the hookworm parasite.

The effect of this disease is to render the patients lazy, indolent and shiftless. They become affected with a sort of anemia in which it is the greatest toil for them even to move about. People in this condition might as well be dead as alive almost. It has been considered in the past a disease of the poorer people and due to poor living, but of late it has been found to invade the homes of the rich as well as the poor. It is decidedly a national menace and it is to be hoped that good results will come from the use of Mr. Rockefeller's appropriation for preventive measures.

Another disease that is becoming prevalent in the southern states is that known as pellagra. It causes a sealy affection of the skin on the parts of the body exposed to the air and is very annoying. Some cases of this disease have appeared in Massachusetts. The secretary of the Public Health and Marine Hospital service to investigate this disease and they are to meet at Columbia, S. C., in a few days to start the work. It is believed that the commission will find that this disease is also due to the action of a specific parasite.

Some doctors who have studied both the diseases mentioned are inclined to the belief that pellagra is also a result of the hookworm parasite, but this theory has not yet been scientifically demonstrated.

SEEN AND HEARD

MORNING PRAYER.

Oh, may I be brave today, today!
And may I be kind and true,
And greet all men in a gracious way,
And put good cheer in the things I say
And love in the deeds I do,
May the honest heart of a child be
mine,
And the grace of a rose in bloom;
Let me all the day with a hope divine:
And turn my face to the sky's glad
shine,
With never a cloud of gloom.
With the golden levers of Love and
Light
I would lift the world and when,
Through a path with kindly deeds
made bright,
I come to the hush of the starlit night,
I would rest in peace, Amen.

department were talking of some of their experiences with new officers, the other day. Their stories were interesting and some of them humorous. When the supply of "yarns" had about run out, one of them said: "By the way, I forgot to tell what I consider ingratitude all right, I recall that there was a certain woman arrested for illegal selling. It seems that among those 'favored' by the woman, on Sundays, was a man who resided in the neighborhood in which she lived. For several years, it was said, he could secure his pint or half pint on Sunday. The time came when he was appointed to the police force, and a short time later he went to this woman's house and it is claimed secured a bottle of whiskey. Just as he placed it in his pocket, the liquor officers stepped in, secured the bottle from the officer who was supposed to be a friend of the woman, and had a warrant sworn out charging her with an illegal sale. That struck me as being about the limit to which a 'friend' could go."

That there is more than a single way to rebuke one who is inclined to prevarication is shown by a conversation which took place in a club the other night.

One of the members, after a long silence, broke it by starting to tell one of his hunting experiences. "Well sir," said the speaker, "about a year ago when I went on a hunting trip with two of my friends I shot into a covey of birds. Got right into the midst of them. Fired away blindly. Will you believe I got four birds with every shot."

The listeners were politely interested, with the exception of one man, who was known for his dislike for fish stories.

"Well, that is rather remarkable, I'll admit but it hardly compares with an experience I had up the country. I went out with my rifle to hunt for frogs. I had just crossed a field when I came to a large lily pond when I was astounded to see sitting on the lily pads about a hundred frogs. I lifted my rifle to my shoulder and let her go."

"Well, what of it?" said the first speaker.

"Well, what do you suppose. The minute my gun went off every one of them croaked."

The following is from "Stroller's" column in the Portland Evening Express:

With many candidates in the field for mayor the coming election will no doubt be made more lively by the news that Joe Rancour has announced that he, too, will be a candidate for mayor this fall. Here is his letter to the Stroller:

CHILD LABOR LAWS CALVARY CHURCH

Five Changes in Them are to be Made To Be Dedicated By Special Service Sunday

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—The question of new child labor laws in this state was discussed at a conference of social and educational workers in the Twentieth Century club last evening.

Prof. Paul H. Hahn of Harvard university presided at the meeting and there were present several members of the Boston school committee, Judge De Courcy, Mrs. Keough, Miss Alice Higgins, Mr. J. H. Davis, Mr. Bradley, Howard Brown, R. H. Conant and some 30 other persons prominent as educators or social workers.

A committee has had the subject under investigation and study for a year, and as a result of this investigation it was found that Massachusetts was behind some 10 other states in its child labor laws.

The committee proposed six separate subjects to be presented to the committee on labor at the next session of the legislature and five of these were approved by the conference as follows:

First—Shortening of the day's work for children under 16 years of age. It was proposed that 54 hours be considered a week's work.

Second—Night work for children. It was decided that night work should be regulated.

Third—Physical examination of children. It was decided that school committees or boards of health should attend to the physical examination of children between the age of 14 and 19 who wished to go to work.

Fourth—Dangerous occupations. It was decided that the scope of the present law should be enlarged to include a greater number of occupations. The law at present only specifies elevators, breweries, saloons and theatres.

Fifth—Licensing minors engaged in street employments. It was proposed that in cities of over 10,000 inhabitants the licensing of minors under 16 be placed in the hands of school committees.

The Calvary Baptist church at the corner of Liberty and Hastings streets will be dedicated by special services on Sunday next. The new church is the successor to the Branch Street Tabernacle that was sold about two years ago.

The dedicatory services will be held in the main auditorium on Sunday morning at 10.30. The service will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. Asa Reed Dilts, and the sermon will be delivered by Rev. Geo. R. Stair of Middlebury, Vt., an evangelist and preacher of note. Rev. E. A. Whittier of Lawrence, the first pastor of the church, will make the ordaining prayer. There will be special music under the direction of the organist, Frank B. Hill. The Sunday school session at noon will be a special rally day service.

Beginning on Sunday evening, fifteen days of evangelistic services will be started by a service at 6.30, led by Rev. George R. Stair. These evangelistic meetings will continue daily at 7.45 p. m. for 15 days and the Highland Congregational and Highland M. E. churches will unite with the Calvary Baptist in conducting them.

The church building is modern, attractive and well appointed. Architects Stickney, Austin & Rourke of Boston and Lowell prepared the plans which were approved by the building committee. The building committee consisted of Richard Gumb, William T. Hills, Frank B. Hill, Albert Pearsall, Samuel G. Stephens, Rev. Asa Reed Dilts, Mrs. George O. Hutchins, Justin

N. Dows and William A. Morse. The keys of the church will be presented by Mr. Stephens, the secretary of the building committee, and will be received by Richard Gumb, chairman of the finance committee.

The building cost about $30,000, the organ $4,000, and the land $5,000. With the Sunday school utilized, which is immediately at the rear of the auditorium, the seating capacity is about 700.

The auditorium floor is of hard wood and the aisles are carpeted. The steeple, two in number exclusive of the spire, converge toward the pulpit. The walls are light green except for the four foot wainscoting of dark oak, and the trimmings are ivory. The trusses along the sides of the walls at the ceilings are heavy dark oak beams and they are supporting ivory colored metal cross pieces to stiffen the upper structure. The ceiling is light green, the walls being angled near the top and meeting the ceiling on a slant. There are tasteful stencillings as mural decorations.

The work of the building was done by the following: Foundation, William H. Fuller; brick and granite work, Patrick Conlon; carpenter work, William H. Penn; plastering, E. F. Crosby; painting and decorating, Dwyer & Co.; heating, Gaffney & Kerwin; plumbing, Farrell & Conant; electric wiring, Derby & Morse; electric fixtures, Leighton & Graham; slating, James Burns; iron work, Chelmsford Iron Foundry; pews and pulpit furniture, American Seating Co.; organ, William E. Goodwin.

The new edifice will be a great addition to the neighborhood in which it stands, will be an efficient aid to the society in carrying on its appointed work, and will be a monument to the good sense and practical ideas of the building committee.

The Branch Street Baptist church, known as the Branch Street Tabernacle, was organized July 1, 1859, with Rev. E. A. Whittier as its first pastor. The old church edifice was dedicated Jan. 16, 1872, the corner stone being laid in 1871. The new corner stone of the Calvary Baptist church bears the dates, 1871—1908.

MEN HIGHER UP

Wanted in the Alleged Fraud Cases

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Investigation by the federal government into the sugar underweighing frauds was continued with unabated vigor today. With evidence before them pointing to the conclusion that frauds at the sugar docks were kept up long after the exposure in the raid on the Williamsburg docks in 1908 the government investigators it was reported today were on the trail of men "higher up."

Yesterday's indictment and arraignment of Joseph Donelson, a government weigher, for frauds alleged to have been committed at a date subsequent to the first exposures, was said to be only a step in the process by which further revelations, possibly of a startling nature, were to be made.

J. W. HATFIELD

Given a Sentence of Five Years

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 5.—With the admission that he had committed a crime and was willing to take his medicine but imploring the court to release him from prison before he became a gray haired old man, J. W. Hatfield, one of the last survivors of the famous Hatfield-McCoy feud in Kentucky and a rough rider who fought at San Juan, told Judge Davis yesterday in the superior court that he had run away with 14 year old Pearl Eastman of Ventura county because he wanted to marry her. He was sentenced to five years in San Quentin, the minimum under the law.

He accepted sentence without a word.

The feud originated some years ago with the killing of Eli Greene an aged man who was shot from ambush while he was harvesting. Yount married a daughter of the elder Greene and Davis wedded his widow. Bad feeling existed between Davis and Yount and it is supposed that George Greene, a son of the murdered man, took Yount's part in the fight. Yount and Greene were unarmed.

COLONEL GEORGE R. COLTON PORTO RICO'S NEW GOVERNOR

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Colonel George R. Colton, the new governor of Porto Rico, will assume charge of his post on Nov. 8. Colonel Colton has had a notably successful career in the service of the government. It was he who first took charge of the customs of Santo Domingo under the treaty between that country and the United States. When everything was running smoothly in Santo Domingo he was sent to the Philippines on the recommendation of Mr. Taft, who was then secretary of war. He had charge of the fiscal affairs of the islands and drafted the Philippine tariff, which was passed by the senate the same day as the Aldrich-Payne bill. He succeeds Governor Post in Porto Rico, the latter having sent in his resignation some time ago.

NARROW ESCAPE

Aviator Had a Thrilling Experience

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 5.—While attempting to follow the auto parade at the head of which President Taft rode through Savannah last night, Fred Owens, an aviator, had a thrilling experience in a dirigible balloon, narrowly escaping death.

He sailed from Forsythe park extension while a big government searchlight played on the air craft. Just as his and another airship turned in behind the parade 200 feet in the air a connecting wire on Owens' motor broke and the motor stopped. A high wind was blowing and it tossed the helpless airship upward to 1000 feet and drove it towards the Savannah river and the ocean.

Owens fought hard trying to reconnect the wire but repeated heavy electric shocks soon taught him not to touch it. He was "lost" for fifteen minutes while the searchlight sought in vain for him and thousands of persons scattered to the river banks and the outskirts to render him aid should he fall. Several times he was almost swept from his seat but the airship was finally brought down in safety in some railroad yards east of the city. Except for the shocks Owens was unhurt and his machine was little damaged.

CHARGES ARE MADE

Against the License Commissioners in Haverhill

HAVERHILL, Nov. 5.—The Haverhill no-license league sprang a surprise yesterday, when formal charges were preferred against Haber F. McKenna, Herbert F. Taylor and John M. Roche, license commissioners, by Rev. F. B. Greul, D. D., an official of the league. The removal of the commissioners was requested.

Mayor Moulton and the four aldermen took no action upon the charges at the informal meeting of the municipal council yesterday afternoon, but at the public session last night a hearing was ordered for Friday evening, Nov. 12.

As reason for Dr. Greul's petition for removal the following charges were made against each member of the board of license commissioners:

That each member has voted to grant licenses to unfit persons.

That each member has voted to grant licenses to persons who have within the past year been convicted of violation of the laws relating to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

That each member has voted to grant and the board has caused to be issued licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors to persons whom they knew, or had reason to know, were unfit, because of the manner in which they had previously conducted their business and because they had been found guilty in the central district court of northern Essex county of violations of the law relating to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

That each member has voted to grant common victualer licenses to persons and firms who at the time of making of the application therefor did not have upon their premises the necessary implements and facilities for cooking, preparing and serving food for strangers and travelers as required by the laws of the commonwealth, relating to the granting of licenses to common victualers.

That each member voted to grant licenses as common victualers to persons whose places of business had not been inspected by him.

That each member has participated in the granting of common victualer licenses to several persons who did not have on their premises at the time of making their applications the necessary implements and facilities for cooking, preparing and serving food for strangers and travelers.

That each member has failed to conform to the laws of the commonwealth in the granting of licenses to common victualers and for the sale of intoxicating liquors.

That each member of the board of license commissioners has failed to perform the duties of his office faithfully and impartially.

Dr. Greul says that the no-license league has employed Melvin Johnson, son of Ex-Mayor Johnson of Waltham, as its counsel and that he will represent that organization at the hearing before the municipal council.
